ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ACTING BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

To the Convention, Greeting:

FALLEN ASLEEP.

"But some are fallen asleep."

As we meet, we first of all make mention of those who have anticipated us in going to the general assembly of the saints of the Firstborn. Servants tried and true, they rest from their labors, and their works do follow them. Their memory will be gratefully shrined by those with whom they served.

Arkansas mourns the loss of George C. Christian, the writer and leader.

California mourns the loss of J. W. Ingram, an earnest minister of the Word.

Indiana tells of the loss of Henry R. Pritchard, defender of the faith once for all delivered to the saints.

Iowa mourns the loss of N. A. McConnell, the pioneer preacher. He laid the foundations of our cause in Iowa. This State also tells of the departure of Phœbe C. Dunn, who left generous bequests to Drake University and Church Extension and to Home Missions.

Kansas remembers in love the names of Mrs. Elizabeth Lobdell and Mrs. Euphasia Lowe, wives of ministers, and M. T. Hough, a faithful preacher of the Word.

Kentucky sends the names of Robert Graham, president of the Bible College, and Jesse Walden, a preacher abundant in labors in the gospel.

Maryland mourns the loss of Benjamin Newcomer, and Mrs. Jacob B. Thomas, of Baltimore.

Michigan tells the loss of B. A. Hinsdale, a helper and director of the Society, and J. M. L. Campbell, a strong friend of our work.

Ohio has lost Prof. Hugh McDiarmid, of Hiram College, and Dr. Henry Gerould, the beloved physician who so generously assisted our missionary and educational work; also Joseph F. Wright, Cincinnati, for many years the Auditor of the Society, and member of the Acting Board of Managers.

Pennsylvania has lost John P. Phillips, one of the famous family of Phillips brothers, a preacher of righteousness, and Lyman P. Streator, a pioneer preacher, the father of M. L. Streator, and an intimate associate of the Campbells, Walter Scott, and the early leaders of our movement.

Texas tells of the loss of J. M. Baird, a pioneer preacher in that great State, D. W. Pritchett and J. Sweeny, strong men in Texas' Israel.

These all died in faith; they rest from their labors, and their works do follow them.

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—As the joyful pilgrims to the solemn feasts at Jerusalem, gathered for the last evening devotions, where they first saw the mountains which stood guard above the Holy City, chanted the words of the Pilgrim Psalm, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord which made heaven and earth," so at the opening of this report we would lift up our eyes and our hearts in devout thanksgiving to our God for the manifest tokens of his blessing upon the work during the past year; the increase in the offerings; the great prosperity which has attended our missionaries; the many ripe fields that have been found; the gracious care of the lives and health of all our workers; the growth of interest in the work of Home Missions—for all these and other blessings we lift up our eyes unto the hills and bless His holy name.

SUMMARY.

During the year we have assisted in the support of 225 missionaries, an increase of 30 over the number of any previous year. These missionaries have labored to an amount equal to 120 years, 10 months and 22 days. Have assisted 342 places. Have organized or reorganized 93 churches; have received into the various churches 6,912 members, of which number 3,660 were by confession of faith in Christ as the divine Son of God and baptism into his name. Twenty-eight houses of worship have been erected.

THE STATE BOARDS AND THEIR WORK.

There is a State Board of Missions in each of thirty-nine States. The summary of their work is:

Missionaries employed, 415.
Churches and places helped, 1,359.
Members received into churches, 17,623.
Churches organized and reorganized, 184.
Amounts collected on fields for local work, $2,147,684.95.
Amounts for State Missions, $122,214.82.

The total of reports of State and National Boards of Home Missions show the following:

Missionaries employed, 640.
Number additions to churches by missionary effort, 24,535.
Number churches organized and reorganized, 277.
Amount raised for State and General Home Missions, $213,931.50.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

The total receipts of our treasury for the year are $91,716.68. Last year our receipts were $63,627.30. The apparent gain is $28,- 089.38. If we subtract the sum of $7,584.37, special moneys given in 1900, for the Board of Negro Education and Evangelization, which did not appear this year, the real gain in receipts of the American Christian Missionary Society is $35,673.75. This gain is a matter of earnest congratulation to all friends of the work of Home Missions.

An analysis of the receipts for the two years is as follows:

	1900.	1901.
From Churches	$32,393.95	$34,881.88
From Bible-schools	2,778.87	3,674.54
From Christian Endeavor Societies	625.17	912.93
From Ladies' Aid and other Societies	578.60	437.70
From Individuals	6,975.07	4,406.76
From other sources, interest and Permanent Funds	20,275.69	47,402.87
Total	$63,627.30	$91,716.68

The various State and District Societies raised and expended for mission work in their respective fields, $122,214.82. The Christian Woman's Board of Missions has expended for Home Missions, $66,000, making a total of money raised, reported and expended for Home Missions, $279,931.50. The aggregate of results shows 1,701 pledges helped, 277 churches organized, and 24,535 additions to churches.

For these results we should thank our God for the fulfillment of his promise that his word should not return unto him void, but should accomplish that whereunto he has sent it.

MISSIONARY EDUCATION.

In order to meet the demand for an inexpensive Home Mission periodical for extensive circulation, we have continued the publication of the paper, "Our Home Field," an eight-page quarterly. The subscription price is 10 cents a year, and in clubs of five or more, 5 cents a year. We hope to greatly increase the subscription list, and in this way awake a wider, deeper and more intelligent interest in Home Missions.

We have continued the publication of the "American Home Missionary," our monthly magazine. The various issues of this magazine contain the Minutes of the National Convention, the Year Book, and other matters of great importance. Its subscription is fixed at the nominal price of 25 cents a year.

We plead for a large increase in the subscriptions to these publications. The Post-office Department has adopted a rule that after October 1 no publication can send out sample copies at newspaper rates, beyond half the number of its subscribers. We need to largely increase the list of our bona-fide subscribers on account of this rule of the department.

OUR MISSIONARIES.

This year your Board is assisting in the support of 225 missionaries. We present this list as a Roll of Honor of men who have wrought nobly for the cause of Christ.

It is pleasant to report the utmost sympathy and harmony among our working forces; the relation between the office force and the missionaries is most pleasant and cordial, and each strives to advance the missionary work, and to build up the cause of our Lord by a faithful discharge of the trust committed into his hands.

OUR APPROPRIATIONS.

We have taken up as much new work as we dared, without waiting on our brotherhood to support us in such advance. We began the year with about $3,000 debt. We owe to-day $2,087.89, showing that we have gone to the limit of prudence in making appropriations. The work is enlarged, and the prospect is bright.

This is God's work: to preach the unsearchable riches of Christ to America. He has given this work to the church, not to the Society, not to the Acting Board; this is the work of the entire church; God has released no congregation from this work, no minister is exempt from its obligations; God help us to realize this.

How few churches reach an average of one cent a week for each member for the evangelization and salvation of our beloved country. We beg our ministers and officers to make even so low a standard as that the mark of the prize to be reached in support of the work of Home Missions.

OUR GRATITUDE.

In reviewing the work of the year, your Board is profoundly grateful to the friends of Home Missions for the increased support accorded, and desire to record their most grateful recognition of the special divine favor that has rested upon the work and the workers.

¶ A meeting.

When we recall the large number of earnest, devoted workers we have been permitted to support; when we recall the 6,912 converts that have been gathered by your missionaries into the churches; the new churches organized, the many church buildings erected, the spirit of courage and devotion to the simple gospel of the grace of God, and the hopeful spirit manifested—we feel that God has wrought a good work through the agency of the American Christian Missionary Society, and has honored it by using it for his own high purposes. The rapid growth of our population; the new towns and cities springing up; the vast territories of the West in which we are trying to lay the foundations for future churches; the cities that need more to be evangelized than the country; when we recall the tremendous forces of evil that are at work in all their ways to corrupt and destroy individuals, churches, communities and the very nation itself, oh, how little we are doing, or are able to do on account of our limited means, for the cause of Christ! With but little increase in the cost of service, if you would intrust us with the money, we could double and quadruple our work. How gladly would we enter upon this enlarged service.

PROGRESS—POSSIBILITIES—PERILS.

Three alliterative words may tell the story of our Home work.

The first of these is "Progress." This briefly describes the material condition. The gain in receipts for the year is $28,089.38. If we eliminate $7,584.37 received in 1900 especially for the Board of Negro Education and Evangelization, we have a gain of $35,673.75 in the receipts for Home Missions. This gain is analyzed as follows:

Increase in offerings of Churches	$ 2,487.98
Increase in offerings of Sunday-schools	895.67
Increase in offerings of Y. P. S. C. E.	287.76
Net gain in Evangelistic Funds	$ 4,244.51
Increase in Annuities	$ 6,950.00
Increase in Permanent Funds	8,172.90
Increase in Bequests	8,721.97
Total increase in Permanent Fund	$23,844.87

The progress in our work in the field is even better; we have greatly increased the workers in the field and have helped new places; many of them have been pleading long for our assistance. We report a total of ninety-three churches organized or reorganized by our workers, and a total of 6,912 additions to our churches.

Our assistance to our weaker State Boards has been of untold value to them; we have truly strengthened the weak, encouraged the discouraged, and stimulated their work until the thirty-two State Boards of Missions, which we are helping by appropriations from our treasury, are doing more missionary work than ever before in their history.

The second word that tells of our work is "Possibilities." Lift up your eyes to the fields. In every direction the harvests are waving white for the reaper. Forty-five millions of our people have never heard the plea for Christian union by a return to the New Testament faith; the cities, so sin-cursed, so needy; the bleating of our own scattered sheep, calling for the shepherds. New England, with 6,500,000 population and only twenty-four small congregations, with a total of 3,000 disciples; New York, with 7,500,000 population and only forty-seven congregations, and a total of 7,675 disciples; the Atlantic Coast, with 18,500,000 population and only 21,866 disciples.

The possibilities are that we could evangelize all that region. What can be said of the Southland, where we have the ripest field and the one most easily cultivated of any land under heaven? The possibilities of our brotherhood in the South are boundless. Two hundred dollars, on the average, will keep a Home Missionary at work a whole year in the South; he will bring a score or two scores of souls to Christ in that year's work. Who can tell of our possibilities in Texas, where another Empire State is rounding into form? Now is the nick of time in Texas; now is the accepted time to lay the foundations of churches that shall leaven the whole State and mold it into the highest type of Christian civilization. One thousand dollars in Texas now is worth $5,000 in Texas in five years from now. Our possibilities on the Pacific Coast are bounded by lines beyond mortal vision—the open doors to the Orient.

In San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and Tacoma, the whole Pacific Coast can be made by our gospel to bloom as the garden of the Lord. Our possibilities embrace all the possibilities of human souls won and redeemed by Christ and supplemented by the praise of God. "My word shall not return unto me void, but shall accomplish that whereunto I send it."

When we shall begin to do Home Missionary work like the Methodist people, who raise about $750,000, National Board and Conferences together, for Home Missions; or the Congregational churches, which entrusted their Home Board last year with $538 986.53 for Home Missions and sustained 1,886 missionaries; or the Presbyterian Church, which supported 1,342 missionaries and raised and expended $745,904.67 for Home Missions; or the Baptists, who gave last year $684,910.71 for Home Missions and supported 1,199 missionaries—then shall the one cause go forward in the way our God wants it to go, with leaps and bounds; then shall we see the vision of Isaiah.

The third word that tells about our work is "Perils." The first peril is a lack of vision. Where there is no vision, the people perish. We need a vision, a heavenly vision, that the great work of winning America to Christ, and the New Testament gospel is the work of God and good men. We need a vision that will lift it out of the low plane of our imposed duty to the high plane of a blessed and happy privilege; we need a vision that shows us the white fields and our high calling to harvest them for Christ; we need a vision that will so inspire us with the supreme value of our plea for Christian union that we will not feel content until we shall have preached it from one end of the land to the other; we need a vision that will show us that we are in danger of becoming a provincial people, contented to be strong in the central Mississippi Valley and leaving three-fourths of the United States almost untouched by the plea for a return to the primitive gospel of the New Testament; we need a vision that will show us that God's uniform dealing with the people has been to lead them to their Kadesh-barnea, has shown them the promised land of their opportunity, and then, if they would not enter in, they went back into the wilderness and were lost; so our God has led us to the Kadesh-barnea of our great opportunities.

The American Christian Missionary Society is our leader to win this land for New Testament Christianity. Its missionaries have brought us the ripe fruits of the land in the many souls they have brought into the kingdom. The twenty-six hundred congregations organized by its missionaries tell us that we are able to possess the land for the primitive gospel. The American field is the ripest field in the world to-day for the plea God is permitting us to make. God has led us to Kadesh-barnea, and now shows us the land and is saying to us,

"Behold this goodly land; it is yours, and you are able to possess it for Christ."

Three-fourths of the United States is to-day dependent upon the American Christian Missionary Society for help in evangelization, and we must make larger provisions for this work. About 900,000 of our people live in the district from Ohio to Missouri and south, including Tennessee. All the rest of the United States needs the help of the American Christian Missionary Society, and we have been giving this Society for ten years the average small sum of about $35,000 a year, to evangelize all this vast territory.

The only way is to plan larger things for Home Missions. The sum of $35,000 is not enough. The amounts raised by the States needing help are not adequate. All the history, all the agony of the wanderings in the wilderness, tell us that we should plan larger, better things for Home Missions.

That Home Missions should be first in the hearts and efforts of the churches needs not an argument. Nor should we count the sums raised by the strong States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Kentucky for State Mission work, as a part of the aggressive mission money. Not one dollar of this State money goes to help evangelize the weaker three-fourths of the country. Nor should we count the money raised for Church Extension or Ministerial Relief as a part of our Home Mission Evangelistic Fund. Splendid work is being done by both these Boards, but not one dollar goes to help evangelize the weaker parts of the United States. Counting the money raised by the Board of Negro Evangelization as Home Mission money, the Disciples should face the fact that they are giving less than $50,000 to help the weak local forces of three-fourths of the United States plant the cause of apostolic Christianity.

Disciples of Christ in America, we are at our Kadesh-barnea. Before us lies the best land under heaven—America. It should be Immanuel's land. If we give Americans the gospel, they will give it to the world. "As goes America, so goes the world." What shall we do? Plan large things for Home Missions, and win. God give us wisdom to see and know the day of our opportunity. May God give us a vision of America to be won to Christ, and may we catch a vision of our neglect of Home Missions.

Our second peril is to persuade ourselves that we are doing enough for missions. Last year the Presbyterian churches of the United States observed the first Lord's Day of each month for missions, and raised an average of 75 cents per member for Home Missions. The Baptist churches have seven general collections a year for benevolent missionary purposes, and raised an average of 59 3-4 cents per member for Home Missions. The Congregational churches have nine general collections a year, and last year raised an average of 84 1-2 cents for Home Missions. We have four general offerings in our churches during the year, and raised last year an average of 20 cents for Home Missions, State and National. Is not the gospel of the New Testament worth as much sacrifice and service as the gospel preached by these churches?

We need to be saved from the peril of lack of love. "Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these?" should be asked of our own hearts again and again!

We need to guard against the peril of provincialism! Our location in the midst of the Mississippi Valley, with 900,000 of our million members found in the seven States from Ohio to Iowa and Missouri and as far south as Tennessee, has a tendency to make us provincial. We must catch a vision, a glorious vision, of three-fourths of our land as missionary ground for our people and our plea, and may God give us Pauline zeal and courage and devotion to say in heart and in deed, "And we were not disobedient to the heavenly vision."

OUR GREAT SOUVENIR.

J. D. C. McFarland, of Des Moines, Ia., has sold us, for a nominal price, the steel plate of the great engraving, "The Pioneers of the Great Religious Reformation of the Nineteenth Century."

This plate originally cost $850. We print on this page a small copy of the picture; this copy is nalf-tone, not engraving; this copy is reduced in size; the original is 19x24 inches in size, and is a fine work of art, an ornament to any nome or Sunday-school room. We will give a copy of this splendid steel engraving to each scholar sending $1.00 for Boys' and Girls' Rally Day, and a copy to each Sunday-school sending $10.00 or more for Boys' and Girls' Rally Day Offering. Bro. McFarland sold this picture for $2.00.

This is by far the finest souvenir ever offered. It is a genuine work of art. We will send an advertising sample to any superintendent asking it.

OFFERINGS.

The amount of money entrusted to us for Home Missions is not in any measure a test of our ability; it is the measure of our interest in Home Missions. Of our more than a million members, not more than 300,000 are giving as much as ten cents a year to obey the command of our King to preach the gospel to this good land. We ask this Convention to come to our aid, and put just now such emphasis upon this great work of Home Missions as will cause our people to realize its great importance. Our Home work is one that we can well afford to emphasize, whether we view it in the light of the past, or the present, or through the vista of coming years.

CHURCH OFFERINGS.

The annual offering for Home Missions in our churches is the first Lord's Day in May. We are glad to report that 630 new churches took the offering this year. We have a net loss of 70 churches taking the offering. The gain in receipts from the churches was $2,487.98.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' RALLY DAY.

This day is growing in the minds and hearts of our brethren. We feel that it ought to grow more rapidly. The gain in the offering last year over the previous year was $854.40. We hope to report a much larger gain this year.

FOREFATHERS' DAY.

The Board has carefuly advocated the observance of Forefathers' Day, largely for its educational value. We believe it is one of the best ways to educate our young people in the history and distinctive teachings of our brotherhood. The second Lord's Day in October will find it largely observed.

As to the future of this day, we ask your attention to the recommendation in this report.

E. P. TINGLEY, Treas.

I have audited the above Treasurer's Report and find same to be correct.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 2, 1901 L. CHALLEN FILLMORE, Auditor.

INDIVIDUAL GIVERS.

The list of individual givers to Home Missions is larger than heretofore, notwithstanding the apparent decrease. This decrease was caused by the large number who give individually to the work of Negro Education and Evangelization.

ANNUITY FUNDS.

"Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven."

The Annuity Plan is growing in favor and in practice. The income from Annuities was $13,700, a gain of $6,950 over the year before.

WHAT IS THE ANNUITY PLAN?

Many friends desire to help the work of Home Missions who need the income from their money during their lifetime. The Annuity Plan permits their giving that money to the Society and receiving six per cent. interest (five per cent. if under fifty years of age), payable semi-annually. The Society issues the following Annuity Bond:

No..... $.....

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, CINCINNATI, O.

ANNUITY BOND

WHEREAS, ... of .....has donated to and paid into the treasury of the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY the sum of ..... dollars;

NOW, THEREFORE, the said AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in consideration thereof, hereby agree to pay to said ..... during natural life ..... an annuity of ..... dollars in semi-annual payments of .....dollars each, said payments to cease on the death of said ..... and the said sum donated by ..... as aforesaid, is to be considered as an executed gift to the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY and belonging to said Society from this date, without any account or liability therefor.

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY,

Cincinnati, Ohio .....

Attest: ..... Secretary.

By ..... President.

ADVANTAGES OF THE ANNUITY PLAN.

1. It yields a larger net income than any other form of investment.

2. You are free from anxiety about taxation; money so placed is free from taxation.

3. Its value is fixed through all the years of your life and can not decline.

4. You are free from anxiety in regard to your property; the investment is absolutely safe, no expences for repairs or danger of bad investments. An Annuity Bond is issued by us to you securing the prompt payment of semi-annual interest.

5. Your income from your Annuity Bond will not decrease.

6. You are free from anxiety about collecting your interest; it is sent you promptly without solicitation from you.

7. Your income from your Annuity will continue throughout your lifetime; no changes of fortune, no feebleness of age, no attacks of sickness, no panic in the business world, will stop or reduce your income from this source.

8. It is free from risks that accompany other forms of investments. As long as the church does missionary work, the American Christian Missionary Society will continue to receive money on the Annuity Plan and will meet all its obligations.

9. You are free from anxiety about the final disposition of your property. The Annuity Plan enables you, while in the full possession of your powers of mind, to decide upon the final disposition of the property of which you are steward. The money given to the Society will be used strictly in accordance with your wishes. The Society will either spend the principal when it comes into full possession of it, or, if so requested by the donors, will hold the principal as a permanent fund and spend only the income. If undesignated, the money, when released by the death of the donor, will be used for the general purposes of the Society, in accordance with the best judgment of the Acting Board.

10. You are free from anxiety about making a will; you have disposed of your own property and executed your own will.

11. Donors know that the money thus given to the Society will be used for the purposes for which it was intended, which is not always the case with money left to the Society by will, because wills are frequently overthrown by the courts, and even when established, it is not unfrequently the case that a considerable portion of the legacy is wasted in legal contests.

12. Donors, having decided upon the use which they will make of the Lord's money, by the Annuity Plan are removed from the temptation to spend it for their own comfort or luxury, or to distribute it under momentary impulse among less worthy objects.

13. Donors are relieved of the care and anxiety necessarily involved in caring for their own estate. Money, to be profitable, must not lie idle; it is not always easy to find secure investments; losses by unfortunate ventures are almost inevitable; money often lies idle for a time for the want of suitable investment; it is sometimes well-nigh impossible to obtain investments that shall be safe, and at the same time remunerative; the burden of the care of property increases with age and infirmity; widows, unaccustomed to the care of property, find it especially burdensome.

14. You have the joy of advancing the kingdom of our Lord in your own land and in your own lifetime.

15. You have the joy of helping forward the great plea of the Disciples of Christ in this our great day of opportunity, and helping the evangelization of America, the ripest harvest-field in the world.

A GOOD LETTER.

Benjamin L. Smith, Cor. Sec., Y. M. C. A. Building, Cincinnati, O.:

I enclose you draft for $10,000 (ten thousand dollars) on the Annuity Plan. Please do not let my name be known. I am getting in earnest about saving our own people. I believe more than ever in Home Missions.

The wisdom of the Board in pushing the Annuity plan is being demonstrated day by day. It is such a straightforward, businesslike arrangement, which makes it so easily possible for persons of only moderate resources to do great good without unduly impoverishing themselves, that it is bound to commend itself more and more. The friend who has thus anonymously given $10,000 for missionary work is evidently "getting in earnest" on the subject, for he gives the whole sum for actual missionary work and does not expect to receive the benefit of any advertising from it. May his tribe increase.—Christian-Evangelist.

Your Board would earnestly commend the Annuity plan to our brotherhood. It possesses some advantages over bequests. Write for Annuity Booklet to our secretary. The following is the list of Annuities received during the year:

ANNUITIES RECEIVED.

A Friend, Michigan (one-third each to Church Extension and C. W. B. M.)	$ 1,000.00

Emmor Strawn, Salem, O	500.00
Miss Eva Sparks, St. Joseph, Mo	300.00
A Friend	10,000.00
A Friend, Texas	500.00
Miss Mahala Miner, Sugartree Ridge, O	200.00
A Friend	200.00
Dr. F. S. and Mrs. M. E. Smith, Lock Haven, Pa	500.00

PERMANENT MEMORIAL NAMED FUNDS.

The Acting Board of Managers of the American Christian Missionary Society have established the "Permanent Memorial Fund." If any one will entrust us with $5,000, we agree to carefully invest these funds, using only the interest, and in the name of that fund agree to keep a missionary at work in the Home field, preaching the gospel through all the years. We have received four Named Funds of $5,000 each; viz.: the F. M. Drake Fund, "A Friend to Home Missions" Fund, Margaret Oliver Fund and Lathrop Cooley Fund. We have another fund of $5,000, given by a brother, which is now on the Annuity plan, and becomes a Memorial Fund on the death of the annuitant. These funds are received as Permanent Memorial Funds, and the Society agrees to use only the income of each fund, and agrees to maintain a missionary preaching the gospel throughout the years in the name of that fund.

DR. HENRY GEROULD.

NEW MEMORIAL FUNDS.

During the year we received two Memorial Funds of $5,000 each. Dr. Henry Gerould, of Cleveland, O., left a bequest of $5.000 to create a Memorial Fund. The first place to be assisted by this fund is Charleston, S. C. Mrs. Gerould, when asked if this appropriation of the firstfruits of this fund would be satisfactory to her, wrote:

MR. B. L. SMITH:

Dear Brother—I shall be greatly satisfied to have dear Dr. Gerould represented in work in Charleston, S. C. I have been familiar with Charleston, S. C., since ante-bellum days, when my dear father's brother was editor of the Charleston Mercury. My father and two brothers were very strong antislavery men; this one brother was a slaveholder. Times have changed since then. I have some very sweet associations connected with Dr. Gerould and Charleston.

Sincerely, MRS. HENRY GEROULD.

Our second memorial received this year was the George Bates Memorial. George Bates was born in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1834. He removed with his parents to Stark County, Ill., when eleven years of age. He became a member of the church when he was seventeen years old. He lived in Prescott, Ia., and afterward in Nebraska. He died at Irvington, Neb., Feb. 5, 1900. In the last year of his life he planned to help our mission work, and by the help of C. W. Crewdson, pastor at Corning, Ia., his attention was called to our Special Named Fund, and he expressed a strong desire to establish such a fund, after his death. At the direction of his widow, Salome A. Bates, and son, John Bates, the first work done by this fund will be in Omaha, Neb., near his former home.

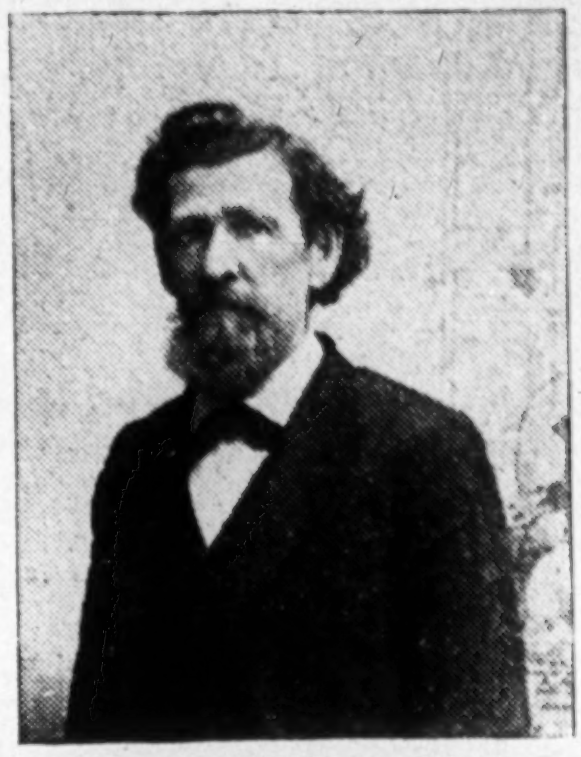
Of this Memorial Fund, George Darsie writes:



GEORGE BATES.

ENDOWING PREACHERS.

Larger things for General Home Missions are at hand. The awakened sentiment of our people indicates it. The widespread sense of dereliction to this supreme work indicates it. The manifest determination that it should be pushed to the front and kept there, indicates it. The foretokens, already visible, of an unprecedented May Offering, indicate it.

But in nothing do I see such promise of great and permanent success as in the disposition to accept the tempting offer of the American Christian Missionary Society to keep a preacher in this overripe American field all his time on the income of $5,000.

That $300 a year will support a preacher of any ability may seem a rash statement to make, but experience shows it to be literally true. In every community where he goes there are always found men and women so favorable to our cause that this $300 is quickly supplemented by a sum sufficient to assure his support. So accessible are the people, and so winning is our plea in all sections of the land, that the A. C. M. S. needs only the $300 and the preacher is quickly found and sent forth.

Now, to the man who is fortunate enough to have $5,000, and is asking, "Where can I put it so as to do the greatest good?" the answer is ready. Nothing equals the keeping of a consecrated preacher of the gospel in this most fruitful field, all his time, year in and year out, to the very end of the age. It is the quickest, surest, most direct way of making money tell for the advancement of God's kingdom. And the man who uses it in this way is laying a sure and solid basis for every other good work among us. He is helping the Foreign work, the Church Extension work, the C. W. B. M. work, because they all look to the churches organized by just such means as their hope of prosperity and enlargement. In a word, our General Home Missionary work is the fundamental work of our people, and its vigorous prosecution is vital to every interest we have. So that the man who gives his $5,000 to the permanent support of a preacher doing this work is putting foundation stones under God's great temple. Or to change the figure, he is feeding at its fountainhead the great and widening river of our usefulness.

What our people therefore need right now is a prompt and large increase of the number of those who are willing for a sum so moderate to endow preachers for all coming time, who shall go out all over this great land and make disciples, found churches and raise aloft in every section the triumphant banner of primitive Christianity. Nothing else would so gloriously push Home Missions to the front and keep them there. Are there not a hundred disciples of Christ in America who have eyes to see their great opportunity, and ability to embrace it? The unanimous testimony of those who have already made this splendid investment, and have known something of its workings, and of others who have closely observed it, and have striven to encourage it, is that nothing more fruitful of good was ever inaugurated among us.

Let the May Offering have splendid gifts from all churches, but with them let there come these larger gifts from generous-hearted men and women of means to endow preachers for the permanent success of our Home Mission work.

GEORGE DARSIE.

FRANKFORT, Ky.

During the year we have received the following

PERMANENT FUNDS.

George Bates Memorial	$5,000.00
Dr. G. W. Taylor	1,000.00
Dr. H. Gerould	5,000.00

THE WORK BEING DONE BY MEMORIAL FUNDS.

The Gen. F. M. Drake Memorial Fund has continued to be used in supporting Milton H. H. Lee in Baltimore. His report of Fulton Avenue, Baltimore, is as follows:

"The work in this field is more encouraging than it has ever been and time has proved that the money expended by your Board here has been well spent. The results of our labor here are all that were hoped for. Of course, there are drawbacks, as in all fields, but there are none that prayer, energy and time may not easily overcome. We attempt no special drawing features. We are working by the long-established method of day-by-day work. This insures genuine results. Often helpers from other churches, and members that do not count, are called from our roll. We have seventy members, losing during the year, by death, two of our best workers and financial supporters, and by removal, four, upon whom we still hope to count for financial support. During the year the church and societies raised a total of $644.34. After the Sunday-school roll is called, there are 165 pupils, and twenty-two officers and teachers. To the Sunday-school we add weekly, and they are coming into the church as fast as they grow old enough. In these three years the school has converted twenty to the church membership. There were sixteen additions to the church last year—11 baptisms, 5 by letters—and a number of conversions, the parents prohibiting baptism. These results point to better still. We only want time. We will succeed; for the Master is in the work."

The "A Friend to Home Missions" Fund is being used to support the church in the West End of Atlanta, Ga. The report is as follows:

"During the year we have completed and occupied our new house; it is an ornament to this part of the city. M. F. Harmon having resigned, we called W. M. Taylor, of Chattanooga, to our help as minister. Before he was well established, the A. C. M. S. called him to the work in Porto Rico. We have invited Dr. A. G. Thomas to become our leader, and he has accepted. We are grateful for the help we have received, without which we do not see how we could have succeeded."

The Lathrop Cooley Fund has been appropriated to the work of city evangelization in San Francisco. It is Bro. Cooley's desire to have a line of missions around the world, supported by his gifts, so that the sun will never set upon the work that he is helping to do. He gave $5,000 to the Ohio State Board, he has given to our Foreign Society largely, and he desires that his gift of a permanent fund to the American Christian Missionary Society shall be used in California, half-way between his Ohio and his Hawaiian Mission.

Our fourth Memorial Fund, the Margaret Oliver Fund, was used, through the Board of Missions of Western Pennsylvania, for the support of H. F. Lutz as evangelist. The report is as follows:

On the 11th of November, 1900, H. F. Lutz organized a mission Bible-school at Wilkinsburg. Driven from their hall by a fire, he rented the basement of the old Presbyterian Church, which had been vacated and sold, because too small for their 1,500 membership. On the 24th of March we began a five weeks' meeting in the auditorium of the church. There were ninety additions, sixty-five by letter and statement, thirty-two coming from the East End Church, where T. E. Cramblet labors, and some twenty-five by baptism. It was the sympathy of the East End Church in this aggressiveness that made this daring move possible.

The First Christian Church of Wilkinsburg was organized on the last day of April. An opportunity was offered them to buy the church building, and part of the land on which the church stands. Already $500 has been paid down to secure it, $3,000 is to be paid by October, and $10,000 within the next four years; the cost being $13,000, plus a new wall (for a part of the building is to be cut off). Total cost, about $15,000. When one recalls that the brick addition to this church, some fourteen years ago, cost $20,000, and that the land alone is worth the money agreed upon, one is rejoiced to see the brave act of these grand brethren. After the alterations the building will seat some 500 to 600 persons. It has splendid basement rooms for kitchen, Bible-school, reading-room, Boys' Brigade, kindergarten, sewing-school, orchestra.

On Lord's Day, the 16th of June, occurred the dedicatory services. At the conclusion of the day some $5,000 was pledged. Every church in the city and vicinity has given Bro. Lutz carte blanche to canvass for help. The factors in this work were, and are, the American Home Missionary Society, contributing half of Bro. Lutz' salary, by the help of the Margaret Oliver Memorial Fund; the Western Pennsylvania Missionary Board, sponsor to the City Evangelization Committee; the sympathy of the East End Church, in yielding up so many of its members, and the churches throughout the cities; then the brave, grand and noble band of men and women that make up this company in numbers and energy, and last, and not least, under the blessing of our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ and his Spirit, the labors of H. F. Lutz, our city evangelist.

BEQUESTS.

The wide discussion of Christian stewardship and systematic beneficence which has been a characteristic feature of religious life during the last five years, and the new interest which has come to our Home Mission work, have been productive of wholesome results and have aided in putting the cause of Home Missions upon a better plane in the plans of our brethren, and we believe an increasing number of bequests will be made to the Society. "Let us consider one another, to provoke unto love and good works."

In the year 1900-1901 the Baptist Home Missionary Society received bequests aggregating $159,323.65; the Congregational Board of Home Missions received from legacies, $169,928.04; the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions received bequests amounting to $134,102.02. We believe with our increase in missionary education and the growth of confidence, the American Christian Missionary Society will be remembered with equal liberality by our own brethren; surely our gospel should be as dear to our hearts as their gospel is to these brethren of the denominations.

May God help many of his people to remember the great work of Home Missions in their wills. The following form should be used by persons desiring to bequeath property to the Home Missionary Society.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I hereby give and bequeath to the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, whose headquarters are at Cincinnati, O., the sum of ..... dollars, to be used for preaching the gospel in America.

(If the bequest is real estate, it should be particularly described. Be particular to conform to the laws of the State in which you live.)

During the year we have received bequests as follows:

Dr. H. Gerould	$6,300.64
Marion A. Parmley, Painesville, O	1,800.00
Annie J. Watters, Pittsburg, Pa	3,462.50
S. A. Boles, Panora, Ia	300.00
John Hampshire, Logansport, Ind	3,908.20

OUR STATE BOARDS OF MISSIONS.

Following the direction of the Springfield Convention, we take great pleasure in filing reports from our State Boards of Missions. Realizing the necessity of closer union between the National and State Mission work, the Board has asked every State secretary to act as an associate secretary of the American Christian Missionary Society. We have voted assistance to the treasuries of thirty-two State Boards of Missions from our treasury. We have given the work of State Missions a prominent place each year on the program of the National Convention. In ordaining Boys' and Girls' Rally Day for Home Missions, the National Convention directed that 40 per cent. of the offering from that day should be returned to the treasury of the State Board of Missions of the State from whence the offering came.

It is the constant aim of the Acting Board to assist our State Boards in every way practical. It is with great pleasure that we call the attention of the Convention to the growing intimacy between the various State Boards and the general work.

Our State Mission work in the various States has taken on new life. The State Boards have raised $10,000 more this year than last, and we look for a larger increase next year. Last year the State Boards had 16,009 additions and this year there are about 24,585 additions to the churches.

The time is coming when we should raise a cry of "$500,000 for Home Missions, State and National," and rest not until the birth-cry of our aspiration has become the realization of our working together. The sum of $200,000 of this half million of dollars should go to our National treasury, to help evangelize the weaker three-fourths of the country, and $300,000 to our various State Boards of Missions. When we shall so strengthen the weak hands and confirm the feeble knees of our National and State Boards of Missions, then "shall the lame man leap as the hart and the tongue of the dumb shall sing; for in the wilderness shall waters break out in streams in the desert. A highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The Way of holiness: and the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads." God speed that glad day.

THE POPULOUS EASTERN FIELD.

Your Board has been assisting the work in New England through the Board of Missions. The work is reasonably successful, considering the small amount of help we have been able to render. We have offered to unite with them, in addition to help already given to special mission points, in the support of a general evangelist for a year. That proposition is now under consideration. The statistics of New England show what a great field it is for Home Mission work.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Population of the New England States, 6,500,000.
Number of congregations, 24.
Number of members, 3,000.
One member to every 2,000 of the population.
Number of preachers in the New England States, 18.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY WORK.

Name of president of State Board of Missions, J. H. Mohorter, P. O. 20 St. James St., Roxbury, Mass.

Name of Corresponding Secretary of State Board of Missions, S. M. Hunt, P. O. Box 644, Springfield, Mass.

Name of State Superintendent of Christian Endeavor of Church of Christ, Dr. H. L. McCluskey, P. O. Worcester, Mass.

Date of organization of Missionary Society, 1865.

Amount of money raised last year for mission work, $1,381.32.

Amount of money raised in State for other work, estimated about $12,000.

Number of churches organized by aid of State Society, no new churches this year.

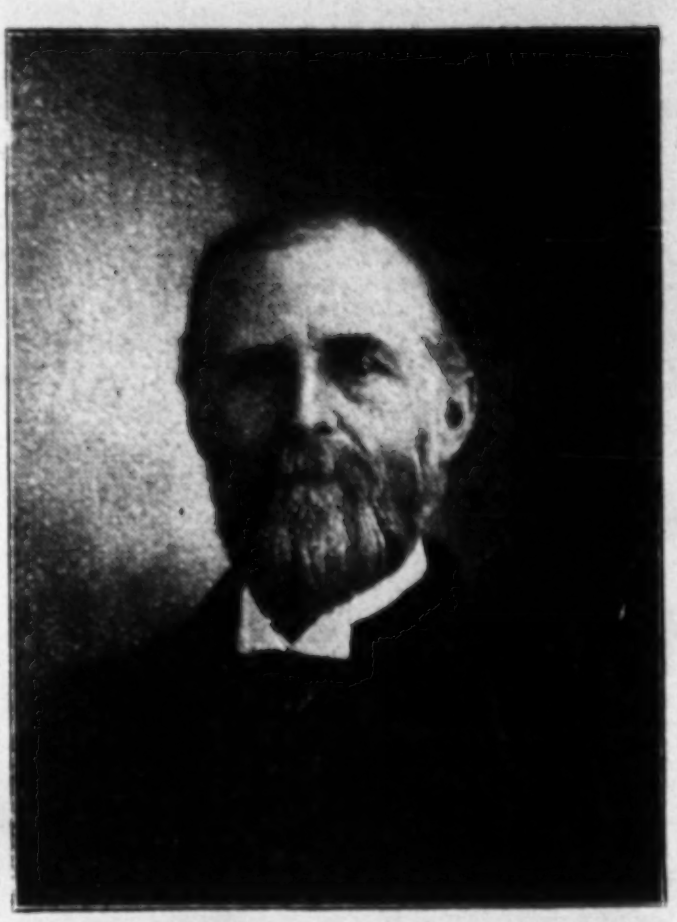
Number added by missionaries last year, 156.

Number of missionaries employed whole or part time, 6.

Number places assisted by missionary labor, 10.

Our next State Convention will be held in June, at Worcester.

In New England the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 438 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 13 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 43; while our brethren have only 6 missionaries at work. S. M. HUNT.



S. M. HUNT.

LOOK AT THE FIELDS.

There remaineth yet very much land to be possessed.

THE MIDDLE EAST.

Here is a vast population. North and east of the Potomac River there are 16,500,000 people. In that region we have only 18,000 members of the church, with 125 small churches. There is no more populous mission field in America, nor a mission field the winning of which will so profoundly affect our future.

NEW YORK.

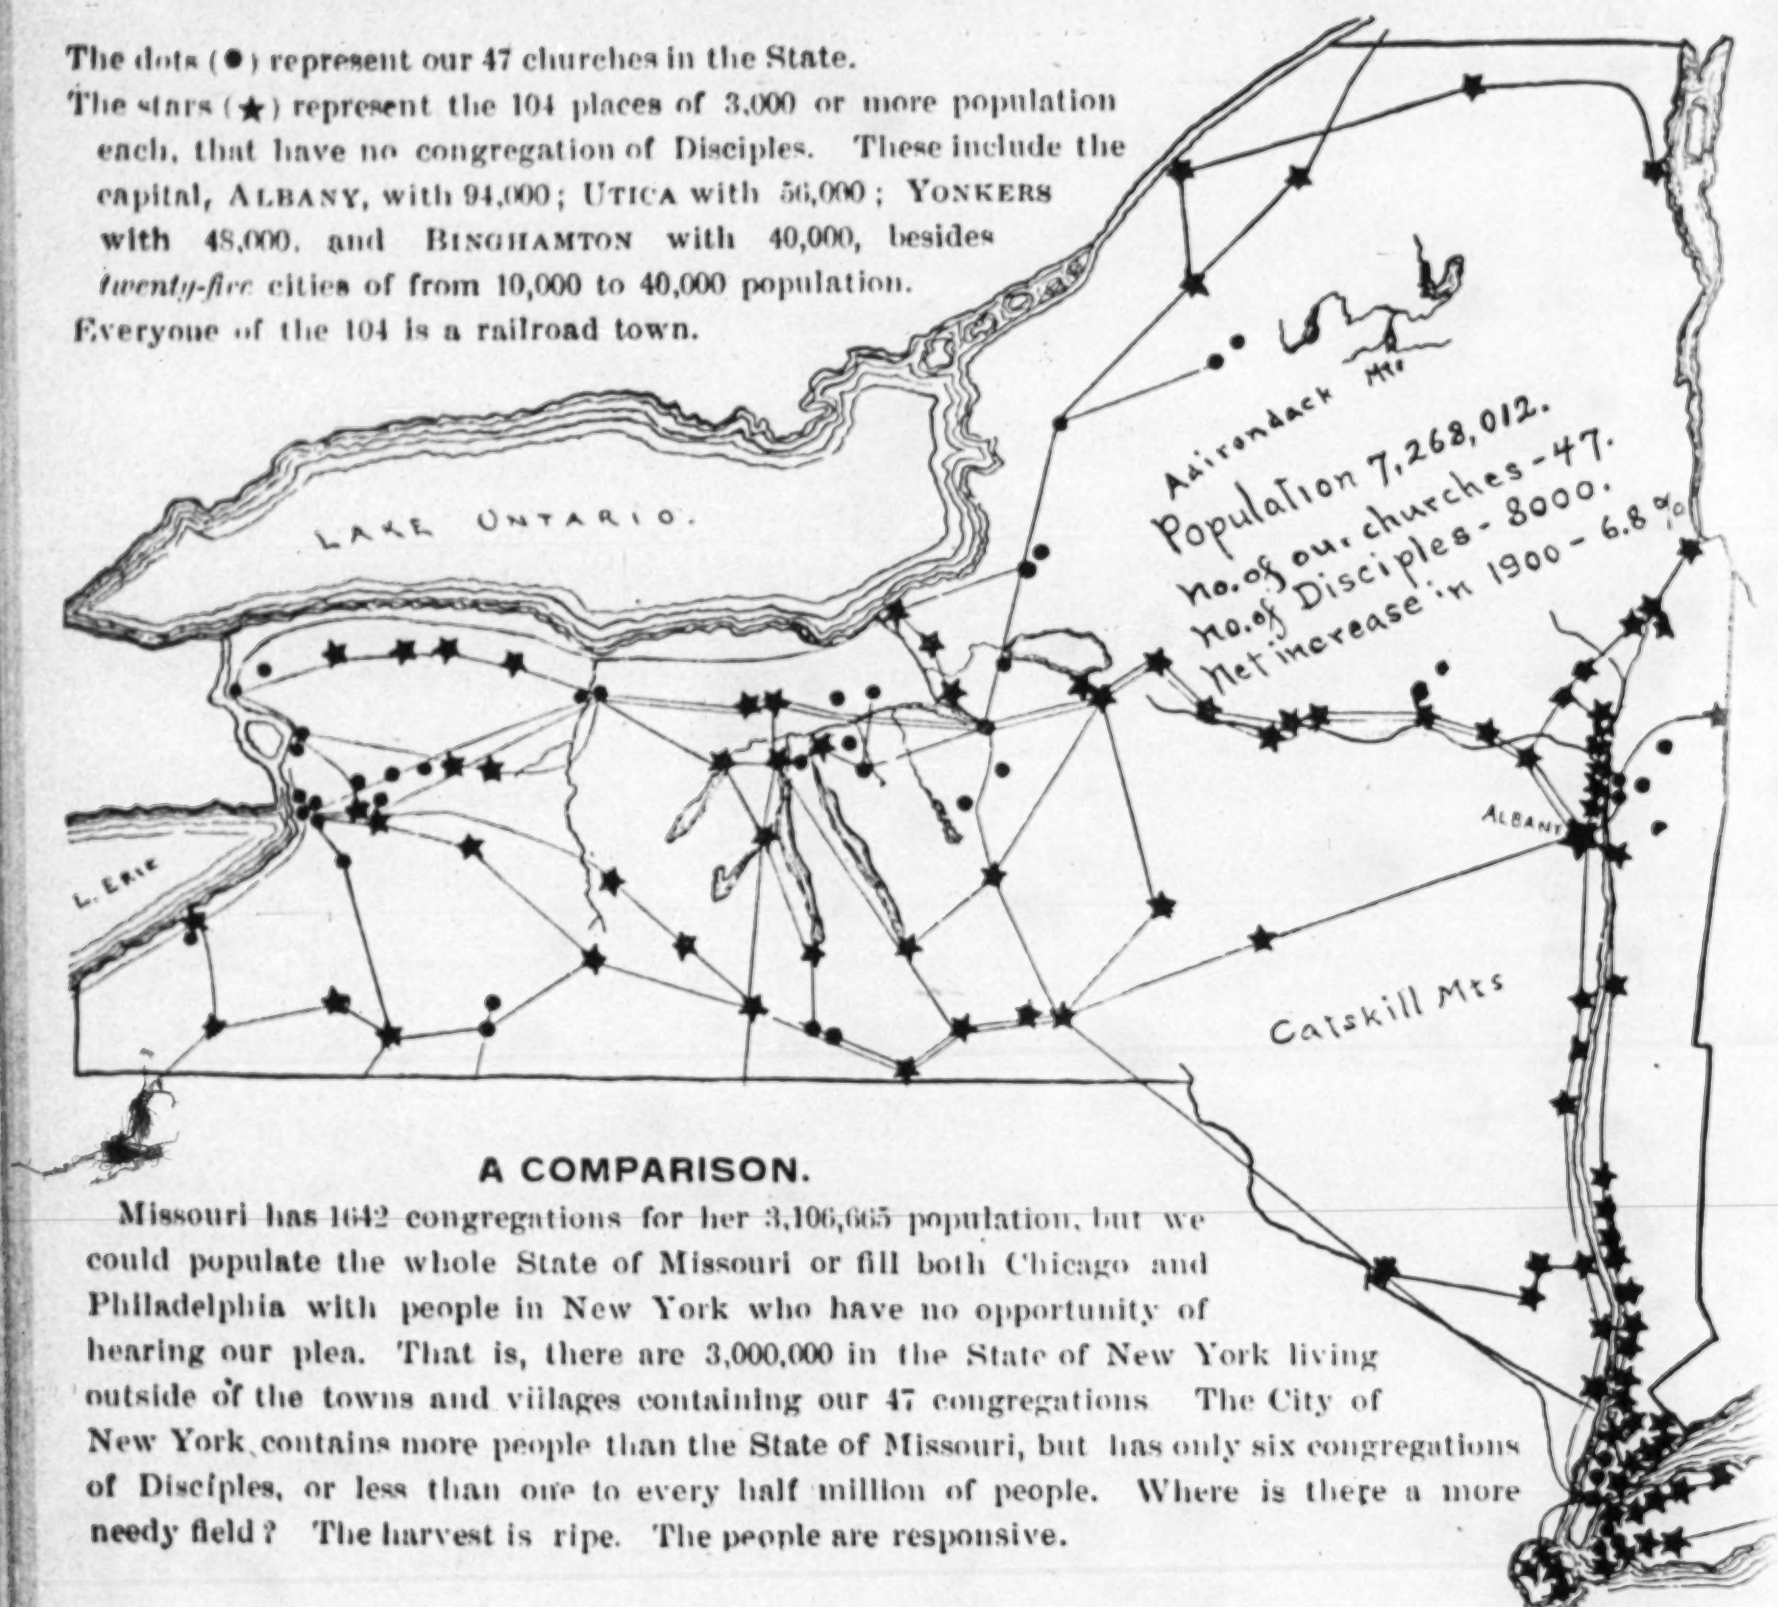
New York makes its strong plea with the following diagram picture of the State.

OUR GREATEST FIELD FOR CITY EVANGELIZATION.

The dots (●) represent our 47 churches in the State.

The stars (★) represent the 104 places of 3,000 or more population each, that have no congregation of Disciples. These include the capital, ALBANY, with 94,000; UTICA with 56,000; YONKERS with 48,000, and BINGHAMTON with 40,000, besides twenty-five cities of from 10,000 to 40,000 population.

Everyone of the 104 is a railroad town.



A COMPARISON.

Missouri has 1642 congregations for her 3,106,665 population, but we could populate the whole State of Missouri or fill both Chicago and Philadelphia with people in New York who have no opportunity of hearing our plea. That is, there are 3,000,000 in the State of New York living outside of the towns and villages containing our 47 congregations. The City of New York contains more people than the State of Missouri, but has only six congregations of Disciples, or less than one to every half million of people. Where is there a more needy field? The harvest is ripe. The people are responsive.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Population of New York, 7,268,012.
Number of congregations, 47.
Number of members, 7,675.
One member to every 935 of the population.
Number of preachers in the State of New York, 50.

In New York the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 82 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 3 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 20, while our brethren have only 10 missionaries at work.

NEW JERSEY.

Our Board has laid the foundation, through R. P. Shepherd, of a strong church at Newark, N. J. He writes:

"It is a gratifying report I am permitted to make of the excellent work accomplished by our little band. Most of their efforts during the year were directed toward securing the chapel. We have now been for four months before the public, which until now, has known nothing of our brotherhood and our plea. Despite the heat and the vacation season, our audiences have steadily grown, and our Bible-school increased in numbers. Our weekly offerings average $15, and are increasing in amount. All missionary calls are responded to with cheerful gifts. Were we but a religious society with constitution and by-laws to be amended at discretion, we might have doubled our membership before this. Without mincing words, baptism is the one stumbling-block in the way of many. However, as we had no hand in appointing that institution, we feel wholly shut out from meddling with it, even to avert a crisis. We confidently expect to be self-supporting within a year, and have made arrangements to that end. Personally, I am thankful that my steps have been directed to this field, and I join the brethren here in heartfelt thanks to the American Christian Missionary Society and to the Church Extension Board for timely help in fostering this work. They have not disappointed us, and we plead with the brotherhood in behalf of every needy field, to strengthen their hands, and make possible the opening of many such fields."

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

C. W. Harvey, president of the Board of Missions, writes:

"Our work in eastern Pennsylvania has succeeded as well as we can hope, with the means at our command. Even with the help extended to us by the American Christian Missionary Society, we have fallen somewhat behind in our payment to the missionaries. It is impossible for us to take up any new work the coming year, but we come again asking the American Christian Missionary Society to continue their appropriations, and to increase it if at all possible. This is missionary territory, and should be so considered in our plans and purposes, and while we do not complain, we feel that we are warranted in asking for an appropriation larger than we have received. We are educating our people to their duty to State and Home Missions, and we believe the results will appear in time; but our growth will not be rapid for a few years. We need very greatly the help and encouragement of the American Christian Missionary Society."

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Population of eastern Pennsylvania, 4,103,159.
Number of congregations, 52.
Number of members in eastern Pennsylvania, 6,815.
One member to every 602 of the population.
Number of preachers in eastern Pennsylvania, 35.

C. W. HARVEY.

In Pennsylvania the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 46 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 7 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 12, while our brethren have 6 missionaries at work in eastern Pennsylvania.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

The cause in western Pennsylvania was never more prosperous than it is to-day. Your Board has co-operated with the brethren of that State in supporting the evangelist, H. F. Lutz. An account of his work is furnished elsewhere.

There is no more prosperous part of the United States than Western Pennsylvania. It is a vast hive of industry. Our people are growing rapidly there, and we should follow up the success already won, with larger efforts.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Your Board is helping the State Board of Missions, and the churches at Morgantown, Parkersburg and the Bluefield District. Appropriations have been made to two other places, as soon as men have been located. A. Linkletter, the indefatigable secretary, is very enthusiastic over the prospects of work in the State.

Special attention is called to the report of W. C. Wade, the evangelist supported by the church at Bluefield and the American Christian Missionary Society. Its appeal, it seems to us, is almost irresistible. See his report elsewhere.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Population of State, 958,800.
Number of members in the State, 16,750.
One member to every 58 of the population.
Number of congregations in the State, 184.
Number of preachers living in the State, 110.

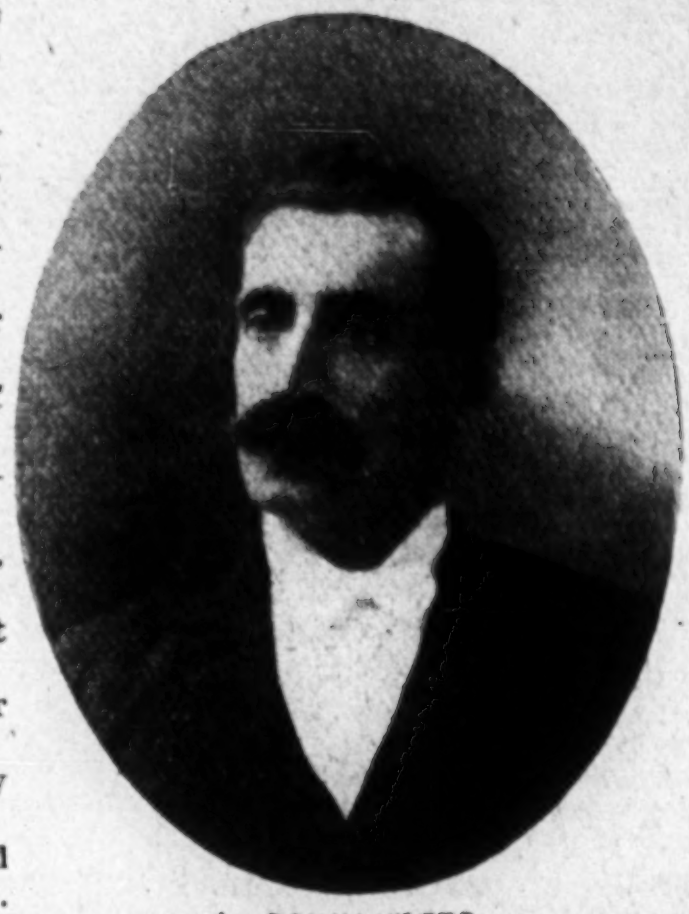
A. LINKLETTER.



A. LINKLETTER.

As a sample of the work we are doing, we present the following report:

Bluefield District.—The church at Bluefield, with the assistanco of the Board, maintains W. C. Wade as a missionary in the Bluefield District. This district extends a hundred miles along the Norfolk & Western Railroad. Its population is largely a mining population. In this region we had no church until the missionary went to the field. Bro. Wade's work began May 13, 1901. He has organized one congregation and has partially organized two others. Wnen we remember that there was not an organized body of disciples in the whole field, this is a splendid result. Bro. Wade writes:

"I found a few brethren scattered as sheep without a shepherd. and badly discouraged. At Welch, the M. E. Church kindly granted the use of their church building for the fifth Sunday, then withdrew the permission and gave it to the Presbyterians. The schoolhouse and courthouse are closed against us. There is no hall, and our brethren are too poor to buy a lot and build. I will organize at Rodenfield soon. Iaeger is pleading for me to come and preach the gospel. We have a number of brethren at Panther. They are zealous, and with careful teaching will do good work. Business has been almost paralyzed by the strikes, but will doubtless improve. Williamson is a county-seat, as is Welch. We nave a number of disciples in both places. We need church buildings, then the cause will grow. If the Church Extension Board will help us, we will grow rapidly, and the congregations become self-supporting. All up and down the railroad the people are pleading for me to come and preach the gospel. Back from the raliroad, the call comes with Macedonian pathos, 'Come and help us,' but I am only one; my field is one hundred miles long:

"Oh, if the Home Board could only send fifty men into these mountains! These people need the eternal riches. I can not bring my family here because of insufficient support. Brethren, pray for me and this work, and prove the sincerity of your prayers by more substantial and enlarged gifts to the Board, to greatly enlarge this work.

MARYLAND, DELAWARE AND DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

Your Board has assisted in the support of the work through the State Board of Missions. J. A. Hopkins, corresponding secretary, writes:

"We have done more work the last year than heretofore. Our needs are men and money. The conditions are very hopeful, and the possibilities are very great. We could open up promising Missions in Baltimore and Washington if we could support the ministers. We have only twenty white churches in Maryland, and four among the colored people. We have one small church in Delaware."

GENERAL EVANGELIST FOR THE EAST.

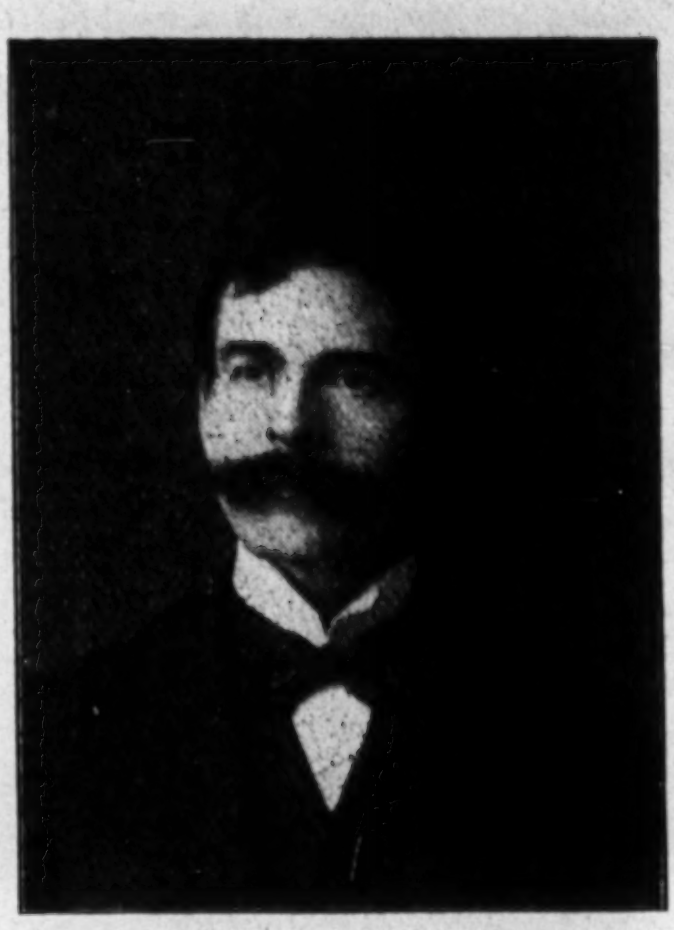
Realizing the importance of this great mission field, your Board has, at the earnest solicitation of brethren living in the East, called W. J. Wright, of Washington, D. C., as general evangelist of the East. He will visit our missions, and, by special protracted meetings, assist them to self-support. He will lay the foundations of churches, and in every way attempt to rally our forces and build up the cause of New Testament Christianity in the populous East. His work will be in a region where there are 16,000,000 people, and where the plea of the disciples of Christ is comparatively unknown.

Your Board anticipates much from this new departure, hoping it may lead to larger plans all over the land.

THE SOUTHERN STATES.

The South is a garden-spot, we should make it a garden of the Lord In no place on the footstool will a little money do more work in Home Missions than throughout the South.

The South is the home of faith; it never produced an infidel of national reputation. The fields are overripe to the harvest, and it only needs that we send forth the laborers into that wonderful harvest-field.



W. J. WRIGHT.
Evangelist of the East.

VIRGINIA.

"Our work in Virginia has taken on new life. Under the inspiration of some very devoted men, the cause has been very greatly helped in the State. It is expected that larger results will be realized in the year to come than in the past year. Virginia is grateful indeed for the help of the brotherhood, as given through the appropriation from the American Christian Missionary Society, to our State."

OUR Board is helping the Tidewater District, maintaining H Pearce Atkins in the new West End Church in Richmond. The field is promising, and it is felt that in the future we will have a strong church in that growing part of the city.

NORTH CAROLINA.

B. H. Melton, corresponding secretary, writes: "The progress of our work is slow, but permanent. Denominationalism in this State has gone to seed; some of the seeds have three or four sprouts on them. We work here for every inch of ground that we possess. Our preachers are heroes, in every sense of the word. The majority of them work here for less than $300 a year. Nine-tenths of our churches are in the country. One-fourth of our congregations worship in rented halls and in schoolhouses. This is a mission field indeed and in truth, and, with the assistance of the American Christian Missionary Society, we are doing more work than ever before in our history. We have begun to concentrate our forces upon the cities."

TENNESSEE.

Tennessee is one of our self-supporting States. The General Board makes no appropriation for the State, excepting we are ready to enter upon the work of city evangelization in Memphis. A. I. Myhr, by years of devoted service, has developed the State to its present condition, and made the following report possible. Bro. Myhr writes: "Our opportunities are very great. We ought to have twenty-five more men for the next year, and $10,000; then we could support ministers in many fields now crying for help. One hundred dollars, in addition to the amount raised on the field, will support many of these men. We can take this State for Christ and his gospel, if our people will do their duty."

GEORGIA.

The American Christian Missionary Society is assisting the work in Georgia. H. C. Combs is the efficient secretary. He writes: "Conditions in Georgia are gradually growing better. There are no booms, but a good, healthy growth, both numerically and spiritually. More churches are alive than at any previous time. Our last convention had the best attendance of any in our history. We need more men and more money. The future is bright with promises."

FLORIDA.

"The brethren of Florida feel grateful to the brotherhood at large for coming to their help, but the appropriation for this work should be doubled at once. The State has suffered grievously from the visitation of men whose characters have not been above reproach, and yet who posed as ministers of the gospel. The cry of Florida is the cry of conscious weakness, to the greater strength of the brotherhood at large. The American Christian Missionary Society, co-operating with the Florida State Board, has begun the foundations of a church at Tampa. Tampa is a rapidly growing city of the second class, the most important city of Florida, and the gateway to Cuba, which opens her doors and calls for the planting of the pure gospel. In this important center of 50,000 people, there are only four white churches, and these are asking for more preachers sent to them. The Cubans are easier reached in Tampa, where they are free from priestly rule, than they are in Cuba. Each church in Tampa maintains a Cuban mission. There are fifty or seventy-five members living there, who will support the work. S. D. Colyer is the missionary under the joint support of the two Boards. There can be no better or more fruitful field than is here presented, for it combines both Home and Foreign Missions. We plead for enlarged support for our brotherhood."

In Florida the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 33 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 24 missionary pastors; the Northern Baptists maintain 5; the Southern Baptists have 36 missionaries, while our brethren have only 3 missionaries at work.

ALABAMA.

O. P. Spiegel is the sacrificing and hard-working secretary of Alabama. Our brethren of the State are learning the necessity of co-operating if we are to do a tithe of the work that ought to be done. The church at Greenville is a child of our last two years' work. The church at Mobile has been granted a loan by the Board of Church Extension, and is planning for larger things than ever before in their history. If our brethren in Alabama would co-operate heartily in the work of preaching the gospel, the whole State could be made to prosper; new churches could be organized by the score and evangelists sent who could rapidly build up the many small churches already existing. God speed the day.

MISSISSIPPI.

N. G. Jacks toiled faithfully in Mississippi last year, and deserves credit for the result of his work. He writes: "I closed my work as State evangelist of Mississippi, July 15, 1901. The work was very much convulsed during the one year and a half that I served, by serious defections in preachers; but before my work closed, peace seemed to prevail in all the churches, and progress in the way of evangelism was rapid. We will have a hard time planting our cause in all the towns of this State, on account that the people are well grounded in sectarianism, and wonder at any criticism upon their various persuasions in the Christian religion.

"Patience and endurance can and will accomplish much in Mississippi. Our State would be almost helpless but for the assistance given by the American Christian Missionary Society. We have, in the last two years, succeeded in establishing churches in Greenwood, Cleveland, Indianola, Sumner, Centerville, and several country places. The work now is in a very hopeful condition. Jackson is off the missionary list, having reached self-support. Water Valley will be next year."

Ira M. Boswell is the new corresponding secretary and State evangelist, who enters upon his work with every promise of success.

LOUISIANA.

Louisiana is a striking illustration of our inability to meet the situation. It has within its borders the great city of New Orleans, the social, political and commercial center of the State, and we have there only one small, weak church. In the entire State we have only twenty-four small congregations. The State is full of promise for missionary work, but the forces of the State are too weak and too few to carry the burden.

New Orleans.—M. Pittman has been the missionary at New Orleans for two years. The field is confessedly a hard one. Bro. Pittman reports:

"The church has increased spiritually during the past year. It responds to all missionary appeals. We have lost somewhat by removal, and this, coupled with business reverses, has greatly reduced the financial strength of the church. New Orleans is well worth the enlarged aid and increased support of our brotherhood. It is the metropolis of the South, the center of the commercial and social life of a large section of country, the gateway to the tropics. Its commercial relations are expanding. The brotherhood, through our Home Mission Board and the Church Extension Board, should take hold of this work with a strong hand, inspire confidence in the work and make it a success. The church appreciates the aid given us, and regrets that we can not release the Home Board from further assistance; to do so would be suicidal."

Shreveport—"The month of September will end, by our request, the appropriation of the American Christian Missionary Society to the Shreveport work. This appropriation began in December, 1898, at a time when the pastor and the handful of members had reached the point of despair. This timely aid was life-saving in its effect on our little congregation. Heart and hope took the place of discouragement and despair. To feel the strong arm of the brotherhood under us was courage and confidence for the future. We soon purchased and paid for a corner lot in the center of the city. We planned to erect a neat, modern frame building. The public seemed to appreciate the spirit of determination on the part of the young church, and aided generously. The Church Extension Board came to our assistance. The house was quickly built, and is pronounced the prettiest and best all-round church edifice of its class in the city. The membership grew, despite the heavy losses by removal, and instead of the little band as at the beginning, there is now an enrollment of 120; while the property, two-thirds paid for, is valued at $3,000. The church is strictly missionary, and gives to all of our missionary enterprises. We have a good Sunday-school, Y. P. S. C. E., Ladies' Aid and C. W. B. M. Auxiliary. Under the auspices of this church a Sunday-school and church of twenty-five members have been organized at Jewella, a very promising community adjoining the city. A building-site has also been secured, upon which a neat $1,500 church will be erected in the next few weeks, more than half of the amount already being subscribed. This young church will be under the fostering care of the Central Christian Church. This child of the Shreveport Church, and grandchild of the American Christian Missionary Society, begins life under promising circumstances. We are also negotiating for a lot in another part of the city, where we intend soon to begin a work. The outlook here at present can alone be described by the apostle Paul, 'A great door and effectual is opened unto me.' And to be true to the facts, it must be said that God has made use of our great Home Board as the instrumentality in the opening of this wide door. Oh that our brotherhood could realize the good results from their giving that they might be constrained to give yet more and more abundantly.

Yours in the Master's name,

CLAUDE L. JONES.

ARKANSAS.

E. C. Browning continues to lead the work in Arkansas with rare skill and tact. He is industrious, and has begotten a confidence in cooperative work that bids fair to grow until the State will leap in

THE TRANS-MISSISSIPPI DIVISION.

Comprises Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, Indian Territory Oklahoma, Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, New Mexico and Arizona. The population of this vast district is 10,300,079.

The past year has been reasonably prosperous, except during the drought which came in July and August, from which this entire district suffered much.

The unoccupied parts of this region are filling with settlers; there is every sign that this tide of immigration will increase. The development of irrigating enterprises is bringing vast sections of the most fertile land in the world under cultivation; ten acres under irrigation can be made to produce as much as one hundred acres in regions dependent upon rainfall. Stock interests have taken on new life; the mining industry was never so prosperous as at present, and it is noted that a more intelligent and better class of citizens is coming into the newer States and Territories.

We have been compelled to refuse hundreds of appeals for help from these newer States. This has been a great loss to the brotherhood. We could organize one hundred new churches a year in this district if our brotherhood would only entrust us with the means to support the missionaries. We need more money to aid new, vigorous churches for a few years until they would be self-supporting.

INDIAN TERRITORY

Great changes have taken place in the Indian Territory the past year; the allotment in severalty of the lands has brought a large population into that region. A splendid day has dawned for the Territory, and to enable our brethren to come into touch with the new growth of the country, the General Board has offered that for every dollar contributed to Home Missions, our Board would send two dollars to the Board of Missions of the Territory to build up our cause in that region.

The population of the Territory is now 391,960. Only about 65,000 are Indians; the rest are white and colored people who have moved into the region. We have about 4,800 members in the Territory, but they are unused to co-operation with each other and unused to giving to any purpose. Opportunities are abundant for a large work, while the Territory is in a formative state. We ought to have some work among the Indians. F. G. Roberts writes:

"Our possibilities are great in this country, and increase as the years go by. Our own churches are hearing the appeals for missions as never before. Of course, we only give meagerly at first. Our greatest need is church buildings in which our congregations can meet. Next to that, we need men. We could increase our membership by one thousand souls, if the Home Board would give us $1,000 instead of $300. I plead for $1,000 for Indian Territory, from the Home Board."

OKLAHOMA.

The population of Oklahoma is fully 400,000 and is increasing rapidly. It will be one of the most populous States west of the Mississippi River in ten years. Religious foundations laid broad and deep now will mean a permanent and large place in the future of the State of Oklahoma.

Our Board has been feebly at work in Oklahoma from the beginning, but only in a feeble way. Our sad neglect of Home Missions has prevented the large work that we ought to have done, but our brethren are helping themselves, and that is the best kind of help.

Oklahoma is securing a number of strong additions to her ministry, some coming from the States, others coming directly from our colleges.

The prosperity of Oklahoma not only draws business men, but it makes it easier for the churches to secure strong pastors. A few years ago it was almost impossible to induce a sufficient number of good pastors to go to Oklahoma; now the supply is fully up to the demand.

It is confidently expected that the churches which have been helped will declare themselves self-supporting and will assume great responsibilities in evangelizing Oklahoma, and thus prove themselves worthy of what has been done for them.

We should have a leading place among the religious bodies of Oklahoma, with a preponderance of sentiment and influence in favor of a simple New Testament gospel as being alone sufficient and all-sufficient to save Oklahoma. With increased missionary work and the blessing of God, nothing but personal unworthiness can prevent us from leading all others in making Oklahoma a great Christian commonwealth.

KANSAS.

The American Christian Missionary Society laid the foundations of our work in Kansas when it was still a Territory, supporting G. W. Hutchinson and J. H. Bauserman as the pioneer missionaries, afterward supporting Pardee Butler in his great work, and until this day the General Board has found Kansas to be a most fruitful field for our work.

In Kansas the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 34 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 97 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 70, while our brethren have only 13 missionaries at work.

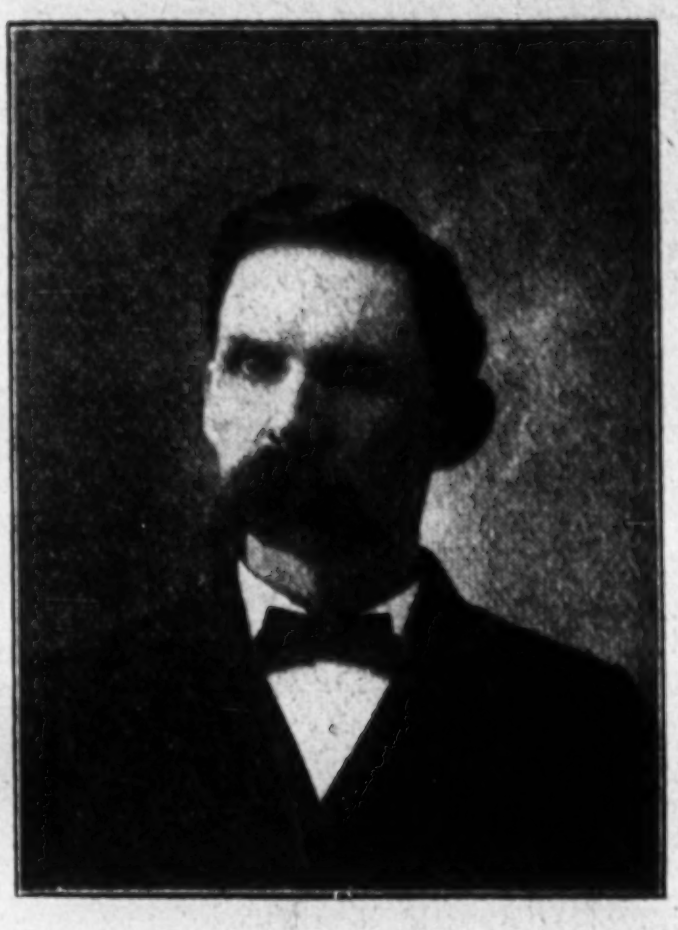
W. S. LOWE.

W. S. Lowe, the secretary, writes:



W. S. LOWE.

We have much to be thankful for in our work in Kansas. The wonderful possibilities of the State; the bountiful harvests, the high grade of intelligence, possessing the lowest percentage of illiteracy of any State in the Union, and receiving more papers, magazines and periodicals per capita than any other State—all these reasons render Kansas one of the most attractive fields in the world for Home Mission work.

Our mission work is in good shape in every respect except in finances. The drought was very hard upon us. We accomplished much more good than in our former year. We had more meetings, aided a larger number of places, and had three times the number of additions that we had the previous year. We pray for all the aid the Home Mission Board can grant the coming year.

The renewed prosperity in the State is making new demands upon us. We can not retrench, but must go forward until in every community in the State we have a self-supporting church.

NEBRASKA.

Our cause in Nebraska is a child of the American Christian Missionary Society. Our Board supported D. R. Dungan and R. C. Barrow while Nebraska was yet a Territory, and they organized churches and laid the foundations of our cause in that great State.

One-half has not yet been told of the spiritual needs and opportunities in Nebraska. We need to recover lost ground (decline from 1890). The causes for this loss are not far to see—the failure of crops, which drove many of our members from the State; the reaction from the boom which left many churches poor indeed, and then the long-continued effects of the panic. Perhaps in no State did our brethren suffer so severely as in Nebraska; a hundred churches were weak and ready to die, scores of them did die.

Under the leadership of W. A. Baldwin and the Nebraska State Board of Missions, the tide has turned. The Lord's blessing has been upon our work during the past two years; there is promise of an awakening throughout the State, and many revival meetings are being held. "Lord, wilt thou not revive thy work in the midst of the years?" has been the soul-cry, and God is answering it.

There is a vast amount of work to be accomplished; many weak churches are in a most critical condition and need immediate help. Good preachers are available, and could be induced to locate with our weak churches at small salaries if we could only give enough help to keep them on the field until the church became self-supporting. Fifty men could be utilized at once.

In Nebraska the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 80 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 85 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 44; while our brethren have only 17 missionaries at work.

W. A. BALDWIN.

WYOMING.

This State has entered upon a period of railroad building which promises much for the future development. The immense deposits of coal and oil, as well as other minerals, promise to make it one of the wealthiest States of the Union.

Our Board has appointed K. H. Sickafoose missionary in the Big Horn Valley. We should have a score of missionaries where we now have only two or three.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Population of the State, 92,531.
Number of congregations, 5.
Number of members, 390.
One member to every 239 of the population.
Number of preachers in the State, 4.

ARIZONA.

If we are ever to take a leading place among the religious forces of Arizona, it is positively necessary that the work be greatly enlarged. All the Southwest is a neglected field, and that we should take up the work there in a large, helpful way, in many new and important points, no one familiar with the conditions can question.

To the church at Phœnix we sent W. D. Rice. Bro. Rice has been compelled to resign the work on account of failing health. Bro Zumwalt, of Kansas, has been called as his successor.

In Arizona the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 8 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 9 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 5; while our brethren have only 1 missionary at work.

NEW MEXICO.

In New Mexico we have six churches. There are many fields that we could enter with profit; we should have twelve more churches there within two years.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Population of New Mexico, 195,310.
Number of congregations, 6.
Number of members, 360.
One member to every 543 of the population.

In New Mexico the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 8 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 9 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 5; while our brethren have only 1 missionary at work.

UTAH.

Our work in Utah is limited to one church at Salt Lake City. There is room for an advance movement all over the State; there are sixty-five communities where we should have aggressive churches.

Salt Lake City is growing; it is the largest wholesale center within a radius of 500 miles; it is bound to be a great city.

The development of the State will be more gradual than others on account of the population, but mining, stock-raising and manufacturing interests are growing, and if we want to see the State wrested from the Mormon hierarchy, we must assist in preaching the gospel of Christ to drive out the gospel of Joseph Smith and Brigham Young.

Mormonism is far from being dead. In the face of the solemn pledge given when the Territory became a State, that polygamy would be abandoned, the Legislature of the State last winter passed a bill legalizing polygamy, and it was only prevented from becoming a law by the veto of the Governor, and this veto was given only in the fear that the people would demand an amendment to the Federal Constitution giving Congress the authority to pass laws meeting the case. Patriotism demands a large increase of our work in Utah.

W. H. Bagby has been our missionary for several years. He has recently resigned his work. He is a worthy minister—a good man.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Population of Utah, 276,749.
Number of congregations, 1.
Number of members, 485.
One member to every 570 of the population.
Number of preachers in Utah, 3.

In Utah the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 11 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 22 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 9; while our brethren have only 1 missionary at work.

TEXAS.

The American Christian Missionary Society assists the State Board of Texas in doing its work. In addition to this, we are assisting the churches at El Paso and Galveston. The church at San Antonio has been under our care for several years. Geo. B. Ranshaw, the minister, resigned to take effect September 1, and the church will probably be self-supporting. Texas is an empire in itself, and the opportunities in that State are beyond the telling Our brethren are alive to their splendid opportunities, and the cause is growing. B. B. Sanders has been prevailed upon to resume the work as the corresponding secretary of the State. From Texas there is still a strong appeal to the Home Board. The whole State ought to be reached by our plea. Let us remember that the work in Texas is only fairly begun. It has been claimed by those who are in the best position to know, that if the Home Board would stand by Texas, for the next few years to come, and if the work is pushed as it has been in the past few years, it will not be long before Texas will become a strong support to all the work in the church. The Texas Board pleads for enlarged appropriations, in order that the whole State may be reached by their evangelists.

In Texas the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 12 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 23 missionary pastors; the Northern Baptists maintain 29 missionaries; the Southern Baptists, 230; while our brethren have only 20 missionaries at work. B. B. SANDERS.

Galveston.—By the generosity of the brotherhood, the American Christian Missionary Society has been enabled to render assistance to our stricken brethren in Galveston. We have rebuilt the church house, paid all floating indebtedness, paid off the mortgage debt on the church, purchased a parsonage for our missionary, and provided for the preacher for the next year; and, in addition, have given aid to the brethren in Alvin, Tex., who also suffered loss by the storm Jesse B. Haston, the former minister, writes:

TO THE BROTHERHOOD:—What a glorious response that was which you made to our necessity while under disaster! The brotherly feeling among our people is great, and again I embrace the opportunity to express the unbounded thanks of myself and the Galveston Church for our succor. We are clothed and in our right mind. Our church building is whole and the debt paid. The parsonage is comfortable. We are using your gifts in our homes. We look forward to a good work in the city. God be praised. All ahead is light; we are so glad; and especially glad because you did it for Jesus' sake. How blessed are we all to be the heirs of the sweet helpfulness and comfort of the Master!

And yet, the wants of these people, while a great want indeed, were material wants. There is a destitution that is greater even than the greatest need for food and clothes and shelter. What of our fellow citizens, in this fair land, ye good disciples, who are dying of spiritual want? Shall our churches respond as readily upon the call to give them the gospel of the bread of life and the robes of righteousness as they responded to the call for physical supplies? If so, what a Home Missionary offering we shall have the first Lord's Day in May! There are so many, many appeals for help in worthy places.

I beg one most serious word: The help to the Galveston brethren came loyally through the American Christian Missionary Society. Without its motherly care and solicitude, the ministry would probably have been no more than half what it was, not so well applied, nor its educative value at all such as it has been. Our religious neighbors stand aghast at the rapidity with which we have regained our feet. So much for organization and concentration, brethren. These are the things that count. We have not yet fully learned their value. What I so beg to be heard in saying is, if you have any work to do among your countrymen, in your district or community, by all means do it through the A. C. M. S. If you have any money to spend for the extension of Christ's kingdom in America, take the collection, send it to Cincinnati, and do your work through our Board, profiting by its unselfish advice and its prestige, and swell its treasury so that others may be encouraged to do great things for the salvation of our home land.

I pray as never before, that the day of the May offering may be a great day for America and for the cause which alone can make her glorious.

JESSE B. HASTON.

When J. B. Haston resigned at Galveston, R. D. Shultz was called to the work. Bro. Shultz reports eighteen added to the church, and with continued help the work will have a bright future.

San Antonio.—George B. Ranshaw has been the faithful minister at San Antonio; we have aided that church for years, and it is now expected the church will assume self-support.

Our Mexican Work in San Antonio.—Your Board has appointed Ygnacio Quintero as missionary among the Mexican people at San Antonio. The church at Brenham, Tex., has taken this work as its special mission, and contributes, through our treasury, the amount appropriated to its support. Bro. Quintero is heartily commended as a faithful man. He writes as follows:

TO THE ACTING BOARD OF MANAGERS, CINCINNATI, O.:—Record of my work during the past months of the present year (1901):

The opposition and hardships that I have encountered in my work have been more strong on the part of the Presbyterians and Baptists than that of the Romans. The former have tried always to do harm to our cause. In spite of this opposition, I opened a mission on South Laredo Street, No. 514, place of my residence, in which I have a separate room for our congregation and services. In this room sometimes are gathered from forty to fifty persons, other times less. In this room I have baptized during the present year fifteen members, of which six are Presbyterians, one Methodist and eight Romans. I preach to a very Roman people, though there is some evangelical work in San Antonio.

There is another place to the northern side of the city in which I preach twice a month to the Romans, which to the present time have been very kind to me, and I hope in the future to have many of them as members of our church. They are pleased with my sermons, being the first one I preached, on chapter iii.

of St. Paul to the Hebrews (iii. 7-12), and they were well pleased with this sermon, and since that time I am gaining their confidence, and I hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, for the glory of whom we work, that the peace will not be disturbed.

I have written several circulars, and the lack of means for printing them has forbidden me to publish them, in which I explain the foundation and origin of the church. I would like to do much of this kind of work with a printing-press of myself, or with means to pay the printing job, but with a family of fourteen persons and ten dollars rent of house, I can not expect to do much expense in this matter of written literature. It is an impossibility with my large family to distract a cent of my salary for this purpose. I know well that my task here would be easier and more successful if I would work in similar conditions as the Mexican ministers of other denominations.

YGNACIO QUINTERO.

The 18th of August of this year (1901), under the protection of the American temple in San Marcos, Tex., was established the new mission from Maxwell to San Marcos, having ordained the brother Carlos Cortez (as deacon), and being his temporary preacher the brother F. O. Gallegos. This mission was started with eight members. During my stay there I baptized one and confessed four, which will be baptized in the month of September of this year, if my Lord Jesus Christ grants me the grace of calling again to that place, the new mission, which is sixty-two miles from my residence. I receive news from that place regularly. I preached during the time I was there four sermons, and other brothers spoke, too, to the people. Since that time, according to the report of our brother Cortez, ten sermons have been preached there.

In this month in the divisory line of the counties of San Marcos, Lockhart and Sequin, five miles from the San Marcos River, the Presbyterians had a meeting, in which there were present about 1,500 souls; next, the Baptists, with 500 people, and last of all my meeting, with forty-two persons. I hope in our Lord Jesus Christ and our American brothers that I will have another meeting the next year in the same place.

In the Reedville Station, Tex., there is a Baptist temple for sale, located in a central place for our new mission, between San Marcos and Maxwell, and it is sold cheap, for $250. The object of selling the temple is to add the sum to the new temple they go to build there. I report this to you in order if you think convenient that our mission have a temple there, to buy it. Now, I will report my work.

Record of my work during the present year: Sermons, 21; prayers, 25; confessions (Maxwell), 5; confessions in San Antonio, 12; baptisms, 7; Dominical school scholars, 27.

I teach the Bible to the children every Sunday morning and the gospel to the adults. I asked of the Biblical Society of Orisabe, Mex., a credit for Bibles, which I expect to pay as soon as possible, because it is the best manner in which I can advance the cause of our Christ and do the propaganda of our mission.

YGNACIO QUINTERO, Pastor Evangelist.

SAN ANTONIO, August 27th of 1901.

PACIFIC COAST DIVISION.

The Pacific Coast is the highway to the Orient. With the building of the Isthmian Canal, the coast is going to enjoy the largest growth of any section of the country. We should largely increase our work in this wonderful mission field. If we only knew and realized the day of our visitation, now, not ten years hence, is the time for aggressive work on the entire Pacific Coast. The Home Board is doing all its treasury will permit, and yet we are not able to assist as we would be glad to do. We expend all the money we receive and are not able to adequately respond to the earnest pleas that come to us from this great mission field.

All this western coast coming into increasing importance, as the result of the history the nation has made within the last few years, too much emphasis can not be placed upon aggressive mission work there.

The chief centers of importance are Los Angeles, San Francisco Portland, Tacoma, Seattle. San Francisco is growing at a rapid rate, and the demand for pressing forward was never so urgent.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

The beginning of our organized missionary work in Southern California was in 1889; previous to that date some work was done in Los Angeles, Pomona and other parts.

Our work is well organized, and the gains we are making there are of a permanent character, but all work is still of a pioneer kind and should be largely supported from outside the State. Southern California will make large returns for any missionary funds that may now be invested in that State. The secretary, J. P. Ralstin, writes:

"During the year, the American Christian Missionary Society appropriated $500 to the Board of Missions of Southern California. With this to supplement what we raised, we were able to keep eleven men employed during the greater part of the year. This added 270 persons to the churches. They kept the mission churches alive, and built up some self-supporting congregations. Work during the past year has been exceedingly satisfactory to the Board, and we shall continue the same policy during the coming year. The watchword for the year is 'Expansion,' and we confidently look forward to the best year's work in our history. Our churches altogether report a net gain of 10 per cent. in membership, during the past year. We are very grateful for the help of the General Board, and only ask for larger appropriations, in order that we may do better work."

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.

California lies right in the path of progress; the State is taking on larger plans in accord with the recent political and commercial expansion. A new life throbs in the veins, and enlarged activity is everywhere apparent; nothing short of expansion in our religious work in the State will meet the needs.

Our work has been done through the State Board of Missions. We have no work among the foreign population of California except a Chinese mission, managed by our local forces in Los Angeles. We should enter this field of "Foreign Missions at Home;" we should have some workers among the Japanese; we are failing in our duty and falling behind other religious bodies in this matter.

San Francisco.—The great city of San Francisco needs our help. Our brethren there have planned definite work and a large advance is hoped for in our work. Your Board has met their plans with the appropriation, and it is expected that we shall have good reports ere long.

In our Jubilee Year, Lathrop Cooley, the pioneer preacher of northern Ohio, gave the Society $5,000 as a Memorial Fund, with which we are supporting a missionary. It is Bro. Cooley's desire to have a line of missionary stations, supported by his means, around the world. He has one in Cleveland, O., through $5,000 which he gave to the Ohio State Board of Missions. Our fund he desires shall be used to support the work in San Francisco, that the last look of the setting sun may be upon a mission supported by his aid.

OREGON.

Oregon is larger than all New England; they have 413,522 people We have 115 churches. The chief problem in Oregon is the financial one; doors are open in all directions if we could only enter them.

Oregon has great needs and great possibilities; the churches must be awakened and must redeem the time if the New Testament ideals are to have much weight in forming the religious character of the State. Meager salaries militate against securing the best men and against permanent pastoral care.

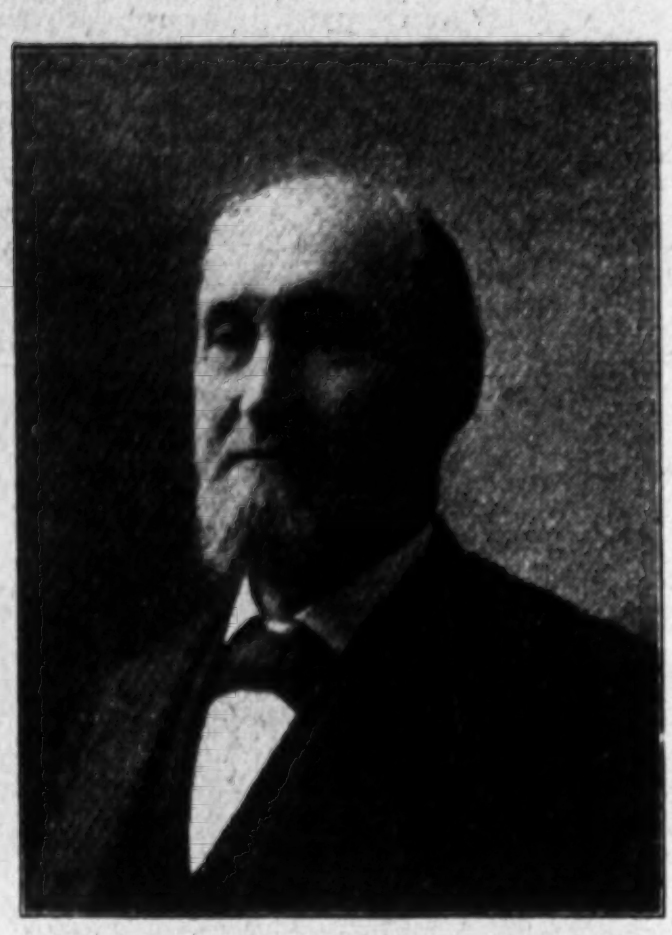
WASHINGTON.

This State is unique, a vast forest extending from the summit of the Cascade Mountains to the Pacific, from British Columbia to the Columbia River, an area three times as large as Massachusetts. A harbor, Puget Sound, embraces 2,000 square miles of water, with 1,600 miles of shore line, affording room and safe anchorage for the navies and commerce of the world. Diversified sources of wealth—lumber, ship-building, commerce with Alaska and Asia, and reaching out to nearly every important country of the world; mineral wealth in unknown quantities and qualities; agriculture and horticulture. Circumstances combine to make the Puget Sound country the objective point for a vast company of people seeking homes, health and business opportunities. The population is rapidly increasing.

Our year's work has made substantial progress.

Wm. F. Cowden, Superintendent of Missions in the Northwest, reports for the district as follows:



W. F. COWDEN.

The new century has dawned auspiciously upon our missionary work in the Pacific Northwest. The year has been marked by steady and healthful growth along all lines of work. Our churches enjoy peace and harmony and are manifesting the fruits of an enlarged spiritual life. In Washington, Bro. B. H. Lingenfelter continues successfully at Seattle, and the First Church, happy and united under his ministry, is erecting a new house in a splendid location, which, when completed, will be a credit to our people. A new church has been organized in close proximity to the State University in Seattle, under the leadership of Bro. A. C. Vail. It is a vigorous plant. A lot has already been secured two blocks from the University grounds, and a house of worship is being erected thereon. This church asks and should receive the generous aid of our Board, especially while engaged in building. At New Whatcom, where Bro. J. N. Smith ministers, the brethren have enlarged their church lot, and are remodeling their house, which, when completed, will be one of the best in the city. At Everett, one of the most important seaport cities on the Sound, Bro. W. W. Pew is rescuing success from the jaws of defeat. At Tacoma, Bro. H. K. Pendleton has had a successful year at the Central Church. The church has increased in numbers and in spiritual power. The church building has been enlarged and improved, and the heavy indebtedness greatly reduced.

The older churches of the State, the grown-up daughters of the A. C. M. S., are also enjoying general prosperity and doing successful work. At the First Church, Tacoma, Bro. J. T. Eshelman continues his long pastorate of over eight years, the longest in the city. He is greatly beloved by his people, and the church has been largely built up by his ministry. Bro. J. S. McCallum, the father of the church in Olympia, continues to lengthen his cords and strengthen his stakes in the Capital City. At Spokane, the third largest city in the State, the First Church, under the successful ministry of Bro. B. E. Utz, is building a splendid house of worship, which, when completed, will rank among the very best in the city. A new church has recently been organized in the North Side of the city, under the ministry of Dr. J. M. Allen, which gives promise of rapid growth. A lot has been purchased, and a building is being placed upon it and remodeled, which will furnish the new church with a neat and commodious house. This church should receive the support of our Board while building, especially as the First Church, burdened with their own building, are unable to help them.

H. K. PENDLETON.

The church at Walla Walla, the fourth city in the State, has paid their church debt, and, under the splendid leadership of Bro. J. M. Morris, has taken first place among the churches in the city, and is a tower of strength to our cause in the southeastern part of the State.

At Pullman, the seat of the State Agricultural College, the work has recently been taken up by Bro. David Husband. This is our latest mission in the State, and one of the most important and far-reaching in its possibilities. In the North Yakima Valley, famous for its fruit-growing, a church has been planted at Zillah, under the ministry of Bro. F. Walden, and a neat and commodious house dedicated free from debt. Space will not permit the mention of the aggressive work carried on by the State Evangelist, Bro. N. S. McCallum, in the more destitute portions of the State. This must be left for his report.

In Oregon the work has been more immediately under the supervision of J. B. Lister, the State Evangelist, and has been singularly prosperous, as his report will show.

In eastern Oregon, Bro. R. A. Copple has succeeded Bro. Dotson at Pendleton. The church has bought a lot, centrally located, and is preparing to build. Hitherto they have worshiped in a rented building. Bro. O. H. King has done a great work at La Grand. During the year a good house has been erected in a central location, and the church has grown strong among the churches of the city. Two new missions have been established at important points on the coast, one at Tillamook—Ernest Thornquest, pastor, and one at Coquille—Bro. J. M. Hunter, pastor.

In Portland the struggle has been hard and long, but, under the heroic and self-sacrificing ministry of Bro. J. F. Ghormley, victory is in sight. The church, aided by the Church Extension Board, is employed in the erection of a new building, which, when completed, will give our cause a position in this chief city, whence its light may shine out to the whole State. Pending this heroic work, the A. C. M. S. is pledged to aid in supporting the preacher. In addition to these missions, the Rodney Avenue Church, in East Portland, and the church at The Dalles, should receive the prompt and liberal support of the General and State Boards.

In Idaho the work has been no less prosperous. Bro. B. F. Clay continues at Boise City; Bro. J. A. Pine at Lewiston, and J. W. Wittkamper at Moscow. Two evangelists have been placed in the State; M. L. Stephens in the Northern District, and S. G. Clay in the Southern. Under the labors of these brethren several new churches have been organized and equipped with houses and preachers. God has blessed his work in Idaho, and every step has been a step forward and upward.

During the year we have been greatly encouraged and strengthened in our work by the presence and help of representative brethren from the East. Among these who should be mentioned, the marvelous meeting of Bro. Charles Reign Scoville, at Albany, Ore.; the presence and powerful preaching of Bro. D. R. Dungan at the Oregon State Convention; the visit of Mrs. Louise Kelley to our churches in the interest of the C. W. B. M. and her inspiring presence in our State Conventions; the presence in our Idaho and Oregon Conventions of R. H. Waggoner, of Kansas City, in the interest of C. E. and S. S. work; and last, but not least, the sojourn of G. W. Muckley on the coast, and his extended tour among the churches, dispensing encouragement, wise counsel and blessing and strength wherever he came.

All in all, it has been a great year for the kingom of our Lord in these new States, for which our hearts praise him.

Touching the importance of our mission work in this great Pacific Northwest, I wrote in 1891 as follows:

"The longer I labor in this new country, and the more I study it, the more thoroughly convinced am I that herein lie the church's greatest opportunities, and that she ought to come hither with her best equipments for every department of church work. Here we have the last, largest and best end of the New World; rapidly filling up with a mixed, intelligent and cosmopolitan people; vast in territorial limit; exhaustless in undeveloped resources of wealth in forest, field and mine; interpenetrated by continental railroads and magnificent ocean waterways, the finest on the globe; sitting on the highway of the world's commerce, as it pushes its way across the Pacific to quicken the sleeping energies of pagan Asia into the mighty activities of a Christian civilization. This is our great Northwest, and the star of empire, in its westward course, will certainly find her brow. Shall not God's people make it the 'regnant Star of Bethlehem'? Let the church multiply her missionaries and send them full handed and thoroughly equipped for their mighty work."

In 1895 I wrote:

"Much has been said and written touching this portion of our national domain. And yet it is scarcely possible to exaggerate its vast extent, its rapid development, its wonderful and varied resources of wealth and power and its future possibilities as a factor in the civilization and destiny of our own nation and that of the world. Here we stand face to face with the mighty Orient, and are brought into living touch with the very heart of the pagan world. No country on the face of the earth, we sincerely believe, offers to our people more fertile fields, ready and prepared to their hands—fields in which the pure, primitive gospel of the blessed Christ, once planted, may become so thoroughly potential for that unity of God's people for which we plead, and upon which our divine Lord himself seemed to rest his hope for the world's conversion.

This is the sacred mission to which He has called us, and may He enable us to prove worthy this high and holy vocation."

In 1900 I wrote:

"Our work in this great field is only well begun. The wonderful developmen of the gold fields of Alaska, the civil and commercial relations of our nation with the powerful nations across the Pacific Ocean, and the character and magnitude of the business and intercourse arising therefrom, bring to us on these far Western shores, opportunities and responsibilities for the extension of Christ's kingdom, favorable and far-reaching, it seems to me, beyond any other field now open to our people in any part of our land. Every mission church on the coast, and their number should be constantly increased, should be strengthened and generously supported by our Missionary Boards. Instead of reducing appropriations for this work, as has been sometimes urged, they should be greatly increased, especially in our large commercial cities. May God enable his people to appreciate the magnitude of the work he has put upon them and endow them with faith and consecration for its achievement."

In this first year of the twentieth century I pause only to say that, "What I have written I have written," and each passing year with its mighty events is placing its seal upon the "writing." May God give wisdom and strength to the hearts of his people.

The following is a brief summary of my own personal labors for this current year—March, April and May were spent among our churches in the East, chiefly in Kentucky, Pennsylvania and New York, in the interest of the May Offering for Home Missions. The remaining months were spent in general work among the churches in Washington, Oregon and Idaho—a work which can not be expressed in figures. During the year I visited sixty-nine churches and mission points, delivered 110 sermons and missionary addresses, held three protracted meetings, dedicated two houses of worship, and attended five State and District Conventions.

WM. F. COWDEN.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 25, 1901.

The time has come for the establishment of the cause of New Testament Christianity in many growing centers of population; it involves increased expense, but the demand is imperative. Seattle, with its marvelous growth of 100 per cent. in three years, and its assured future as a great city, presents a splendid opportunity for planting two or three new churches. Washington gained 47 per cent. in population in the last decade. If we occupy this growing Territory for Christ, we will find splendid opportunities and we must meet our great responsibilities.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Population of Washington, 518,103.
Number of congregations, 94.
Number of members, 5,500.
One member to every 96 of the population.
Number of preachers in Washington, 57.

In Washington the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 85 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 72 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 63; while our brethren have only 6 missionaries at work.

IDAHO

Idaho is developing rapidly in material things; the religious growth of the State is not keeping pace with the prosperity of the State, and this is true especially of our own work there. We have enlarged it, but we hardly touch the edges and borders of the possibilities of that great growing commonwealth.

Irrigation is causing the land that was called desert to bloom and blossom as the rose; large numbers of desirable settlers are finding homes in the State. The splendid opportunities of Idaho constitute an embarrassment of riches; we are unable for lack of means to take advantage of our opportunities. Many communities are entirely destitute of religious services, and we can not supply the need.

S. G. Clay is our general evangelist in Idaho; his work approves itself in many ways, but his work is hampered and cramped for want of means to push it forward.

The Baptist Board of Home Missions gives $10 for each $1 raised in Idaho for Home Mission work; their income of $684,610.71 enables them to expend thousands of dollars in Idaho. Would that we could do as well.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Population of the State. 186.000.
Number of members in the State. 1.500 (estimated).

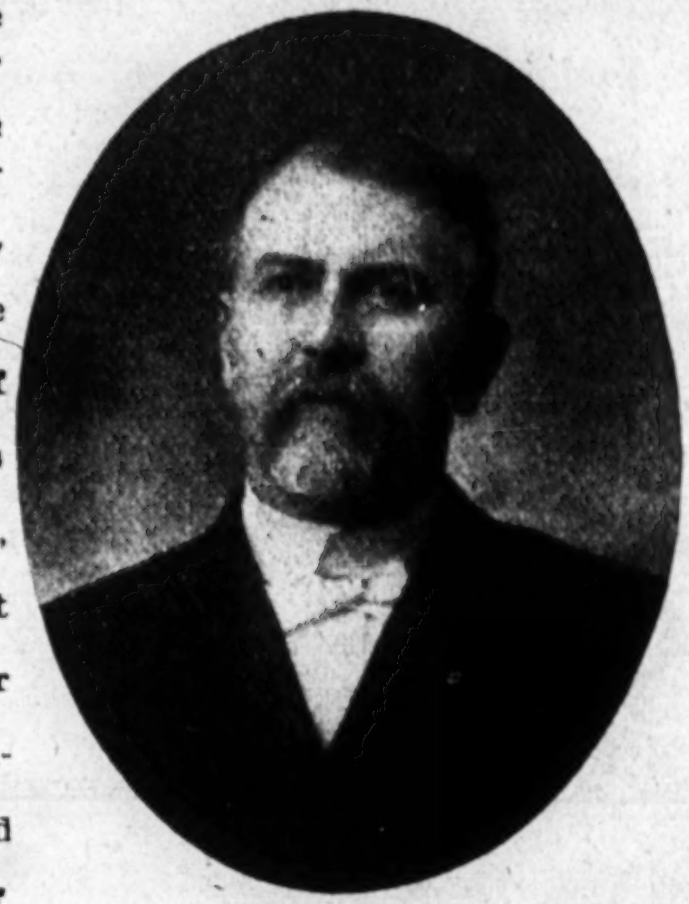
In Idaho the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 13 missionaries: the Presbyterians have 26 missionary pastors: the Baptists maintain 14; while our brethren have only 6 missionaries at work.



B. F. CLAY.

The Idaho Missionary Board has just organized for work. We put our evangelist, S. G. Clay, at work, March 1, 1901. He has been continuously busy since that time. Our greatest need is more money to put into our work. The field does not pay anything to the support of a missionary. Our State Board has only $300 a year promised. The appropriation of our National Board is only $200, and for these combined sums we will not be able to keep our present evangelist in the field. We are just beginning this work, and we may be said to be needing everything. We have many points in the State where we have a nucleus for a church, but distances are great, and the cost of traveling and living is high. If we had a tent for our evangelist, we could do much more than we are able to do now. Though burdened, we are not discouraged. We are not disposed to give up. The work must be carried forward, and as servants of our Lord, we shall do our best to conquer Idaho for the Lord and his church.

B. F. CLAY, Cor. Sec.

L. F. Stephens, one of our missionaries, writes:

We began in Genesee. Ida., March 1, 1901. Held a five weeks' meeting; organized a church of thirty-nine members, and built a new house of worship, which we dedicated on June 2 last. free of all indebtedness. This field is greatly in need of a minister. The worst difficulties we have to overcome are indifference and sectarian prejudice. In June we conducted a camp-meeting at Nez Perce. and had twenty confessions in ten days.

We came to Grangeville the first of August. This is a very hard field, but we have succeeded in planting the cause here and hope to have our new house ready to dedicate the first Lord's Day in October. I give the account of the organization. Now, I feel that this evangelistic work will need from the Board about $50 per quarter.

I am a carpenter and contractor of twelve years' experience, and so superintend the building of churches myself, and also work at the trade all day and preach at night, in this way doing double work, but saving the church much expense.

Grangeville is a town of about 2,500 population, and is situated in a great wheat and fruit country and near some of the best mines in Idaho. We feel that the church here will soon be strong and self-supporting. Charles T. McDonald, a young lawyer and preacher, will look after the welfare of this church for awhile.

MONTANA.

The work in Montana is under the especial direction of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions.

EDWARD SCHARNIKOW.

UPPER MISSISSIPPI DISTRICT.

This district comprises Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota. This district contains 300,509 square miles. When the population becomes as dense as it now is in Illinois, more than 24,000,000 people will have found homes here. The rapid development of these States indicates that that day is not far distant; 1,250,000 have been added to the population within the last ten years; 150,000 persons passed through Minneapolis and St. Paul in 1900 to find homes in the Northwest. Thousands of them are foreigners who should plead with this people to give them the Word of Light; here the call for enlarged missionary work is growing louder and louder. The grave question is before us to decide whether we will do our part in taking possession of the new fields that are opening before us.

NORTH DAKOTA.

In North Dakota we have only four small congregations and 475 members. The call is most pathetic from our own brethren, so few, so weak: "Come over and help us, or we die."

With the exception of one or two localities, North Dakota was settled later than South Dakota. North Dakota increased 74 per cent. in population in the decade of 1890-1900.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Population of North Dakota, 319,146.
Number of congregations, 8.
Number of members, 475.
One member to every 671 of the population.
Number of preachers in North Dakota, 5.

In North Dakota the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 45 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 62 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 35; while our brethren have only 1 missionary at work.

We need men who have tact and wisdom and courage to take hold of two or more of these small, struggling churches, and, reaching out into neighboring communities, gather the people together and organize new congregations. We need self-sacrificing men who are willing to do pioneer work in the new settlements and in strategic points along the railroads; who are willing to live like the people about them. May God give us the men.

L. S. BOTTENFIELD.

We need money to support such men; our income does not begin to be adequate to the demands of these growing fields; it has been utterly impossible for our small means to keep pace with the rapid growth in population. If our Board of Home Mission had been adequately supported, we should have had ten congregations in North Dakota where we now have but one. May God forgive us for our neglect of this great field. That we may deserve forgiveness, may we bring forth fruit meet for repentance by an earnest effort toward evangelizing this great State.

North Dakota needs men of highest type of courage, health, devotion and Christian character—young men who can afford to work for small salaries, do pioneer work and wait for the future harvest to fully compensate them. The duty of the hour imperatively calls for an enlargement of our work in North Dakota.

W. S. LEMMON.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

South Dekota has rapidly increased in population, and there are signs of a much larger increase in the near future. The population of South Dakota is more largely English-speaking than her sister State. Many new town have sprung up during the past year. Some unhappy divisions seem to be healing and the future promises much.

We have recently increased our appropriation to South Dakota work; our brethren there are courageously and willingly carrying a heavy load, and we should come quickly to their help lest their courage be broken and they grow weary in the great work of evangelizing the State.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Population of South Dakota, 401,570.
Number of congregations, 32.
Number of members, 3,035.
One member to every 131 of the population.
Number of preachers in South Dakota, 19.
Corresponding Secretary, W. S. Lemmon, Huron, S. D.
Next Convention, Alexandria, third week in June.

In South Dakota the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 98 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 78 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 45; while our brethren have only 3 missionaries at work.

MINNESOTA.

There are over 1,000,000 people outside of all religious organizations in Minnesota. Nearly one-half the 700,000 church members are Roman Catholic. In Minnesota there are 447 incorporated cities and villages; in 128 of these, with 40,796 people, there is no English-speaking church; in 111 others there is but one each.

In Minnesota the Baptists aid 106 of 204 churches, the Methodists aid 145 out of 290 churches, the Presbyterians aid 205 out of 276 churches, the Congregationalists aid 143 out of 2233 churches. We are able to help only 7 out of 37 churches.

Our next State Convention will be held the third week in June, 1902, at Mankato, Minn..

J. K. Shellenberger, corresponding secretary, says:

"The coming of our National Convention to Minneapolis is proving a mighty stimulus to our work in this State. Our State Board has engaged Simpson Ely and myself as evangelists for the coming year. In addition to our work, a large number of special meetings have been arranged. Our present plan will give nearly every church in the State a meeting, besides holding some meetings at points where we have no church at present. Our opportunities are many, and we are seizing them as fast as our means will permit. We hope for the continuation of the co-operation of the American Christian Missionary Society in the evangelization of Minnesota. You can not find any better mission field."

MANITOBA.

There is a wonderful growth in this part of British America. It is reported that 30,000 persons have found homes in that region during the past year. Your Board is assisting the little band at Rat Portage. Joseph Keevil, the missionary, writes:

The year now closing has been a successful year for the church at this place. We have many reasons to thank God for his goodness. We can truly say, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

A comparison of the report for this year with last year's shows more than double the amount of good accomplished this year. Twenty-five have been added to our membership—sixteen by confession and baptism, nine by letter and statement. We have made a net increase of nineteen in our membership. Last year we raised for all purposes, $190.31; this year, $655.30; of this amount, $362.05 was raised by freewill offerings from the little congregation here.

The members are all young in the Christian life, the majority having decided to take their stand with us during the past eighteen months; but they are earnest and faithful in the work of the Lord. We have encountered much opposition from the sects. They have done all in their power to hinder the work. Influences of all kinds have been brought to bear upon those who decided to be simply Christian. But, thank God, this opposition did us good. It united us more closely and urged us on to a more earnest work for the cause of Christ.

At a business meeting of the church, August 28, the church decided to ask that their appropriation be reduced $60. We are sorry we can not make it more. We are grateful, indeed, for the kind assistance already given us to establish the cause of the Master.

We enter upon another year with renewed zeal, under more favorable circumstances. We earnestly hope to accomplish a great work in the strength of our Leader.

WISCONSIN.

The rapidity of progress, the difficulty of securing a hearing for the gospel in new communities, the fierce pursuit of gain, the constant ebb and flow of population, the predominance of foreign tongues, the lack of means to rightly do the work, render our results in Wisconsin so meager. Wisconsin is filling up with Roman Catholics and Lutherans; we should redouble our efforts to gain a foothold in the State.

Number of missionaries employed whole or part time, 3.
Number of places assisted by missionary labor, 9.
Our next State Convention will be held Sept. 19-22, 1902.
In Wisconsin the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 69 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 64 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 53 missionaries; while our brethren have only 3 missionaries at work.

The brotherhood of Wisconsin feel very weak, and think that of all missions, they should have the help of the brotherhood in a large measure. Our Board has been helping the State of Wisconsin, and splendid results have been obtained, but the field is so great, and the capabilities of helping are so small, that they sometimes grow discouraged. J. H. Stark has been elected corresponding secretary and evangelist of Wisconsin. He says that, having labored in five or six States, he is familiar with conditions. "In none of them have I seen such possibilities as present themselves in Wisconsin; especially in the northern part of the State, which is thickly populated with thoughtful and intelligent people."

MICHIGAN.

Michigan is a great mission field for our people; we have not a congregation in the entire northern peninsula. The brotherhood is weak in the State. Our Board is helping their State Board, and also we are helping West Bay City, Mt. Pleasant, Adrian, and the new mission in Grand Rapids.

Our next State Convention will be held May 27-30.
In Michigan the Congregational Board of Home Missions maintains 82 missionaries; the Presbyterians have 71 missionary pastors; the Baptists maintain 22; while our brethren have only 5 missionaries at work.

D. Munro writes: "The past year has been one of organization and preparation, on the part of the mission work. The districts in Michigan do work independently of the State Board. During the year special meetings were held in nearly all of the churches of the State. J. K. Hester went to the city of Adrian, under the support of the American Christian Missionary Society, and gathered together the scattered disciples, organizing a splendid church. They purchased a lot and are now trying to build a church house. Michigan shall need the help of our Home Board, if we are to do much work."

ONTARIO.

Our brethren in Ontario are pleading for the increased help of the American brotherhood, to enlarge their work. R. W. Ballah, corresponding secretary, writes:

"When we consider that, in Ontario, only one in five hundred is a confessed disciple, our work evidently has ample room for large development. What has been done, seems very small, compared with what remains to be done, and our resources seem so limited that the work that should be done now is vastly greater than we are able to undertake. When this is the case with Ontario, and it is remembered that our great Northwest, with an area ten times that of Ontario, and into which a tide of emigration is flowing, is almost as destitute of a knowledge of our special plea as is the continent of Africa, and that it falls upon us, with what help our American brethren are able to give us, to plant our cause in that great new land—we may well tremble at our responsibilities. The work is so vast that it bewilders us to look at it, and it requires great courage and faith to attempt it; but it is God's call to us and we certainly have need to extend to our brethren of the United States the Macedonian call to come over into Canada and help us. We can not but appreciate very highly the willingness you have already shown in helping in our work."

NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

The American Christian Missionary Society has been helping the churches at Pictou, Halifax and Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. I. A. Miles, the secretary, writes:

"We need a good, live, consecrated and concentrated young man, who will serve as a missionary; one who is hungry to win souls for Christ, and desires to build up a permanent work. Our conditions are hopeful. Our brethren are awake, and deeply interested; ready to undertake far more than they alone can do. Our possibilities are only limited by the population and by the shortness of life. We plead for the continued help of the American Christian Missionary Society."

OUR STRONG STATES.

OHIO.

Ohio is the great feeder of the West. It is estimated that there are as many disciples from Ohio in the West, as there are now in the State. Under the leadership of S. H. Bartlett, a splendid record was made last year. Bro. Bartlett writes: "The Jubilee watchword of Ohio is, 'Ten thousand conversions, $100,000 for all missionary work, $25,000 for Ohio missions, 2,000 persons at the Jubilee Convention.' One-half of the State of Ohio is not yet reached with our plea."

INDIANA.

The brotherhood of Indiana is a sleeping giant. The whole State needs to be roused and enthused in the support of missionary work. It is reported that there are three hundred churches in the State that do not maintain regular preaching. Indiana is liberal in her gifts to send the gospel to others. She should be far more enthusiastic in evangelizing her own people. There is no field in the world where a little money will do more than in Indiana.

The Steuben County churches have supported J. K. Hester as their special evangelist under this Society. His report is as follows:

My second year as missionary evangelist for the churches of Steuben County, Ind., and the American Christian Missionary Society, has been one of pioneer toils and struggles. Many stubborn difficulties have been in the way, but I am glad to say all of them have been met by being overcome. Much of the time has been spent in the new town of Stroh, La Grange Co., Ind., where there was no preaching, no Bible-school, no church building, until the work was begun there one year ago. I have lived there much of the time—the only preacher of any religious body within a region of more than thirty square miles. We now have a fine church building. I worked forty-five days, breaking stone, hauling brick and lumber, and doing co-operative work. There is no better mission field for us in any land. I held meetings with the churches of Hamilton, Ind., Vandalia, Mich., and Florence, Ky. The results were only meager, compared with what they should have been, and yet great good was done. I was employed as State evangelist of Michigan at the State meeting in Detroit in May, and began work for them on June 21, Adrian being my field. We had perhaps twenty-five brave souls in this city of 12,000 people, wealthy, with its many factories, and surrounding country, but they had no church home. We secured a vacant store building on one of the principal streets and started the meeting on June 29, and kept it going until August 12. In that time ten were added to the church. Several hundred people heard us. A fine location, one of the best in the city, costing $1,000, was bought on good terms, and a building will be started in the spring. This brave band needs help, and must have it from the State and American Boards. Our special meetings revealed the fact that we have many good friends in the city, who will go with us in the work in time, but help must come to those here now. This ends another year of pioneer life for me, in which the churches and their pastors have been kind to me in word and deed, and in all things sacrificed for the sake of the gospel. May the Lord cause the people to give large sums to evangelize America. May the Lord reveal to us the best places to do the work. God, give us men! A time like this demands strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands.

J. K. HESTER.

ILLINOIS.

J. Fred Jones, corresponding secretary of Illinois, writes:

"In the State of Illinois there ae eleven counties in which we have no church. There are twenty-five county-seats in which we have no church. In the northern third of the State, which contains one-half the population, we have about one hundred churches. In the southern two-thirds of the State, with about the same population, we have seven hundred churches. The northern part of the State is as fine a mission field as is to be found in the United States. We maintain a Bible-school superintendent in this part of the State, organizing and superintending mission teachers, four at a time, until they are ready to take a regular charge. Then he surrenders those that are ready, and organizes others. Southern Illinois does a splendid missionary work, and supports three evangelists."

St. Louis Mission Work. — The American Christian Missionary Society is in co-operation with the St. Louis Board of Missions, in doing the work of city evangelization in St. Louis. The first city missionary was A. J. Marshall. He has been followed by O. A. Bartholomew. His work began September 1. His long residence in the city, and his special qualifications, give ample assurance that the work will be aggressively pushed under his care. Work has been done in Ellendale, where L. B. Coggins is maintained as missionary pastor. The entire indebtedness on the building of this mission has been met. Work was also done in Carondelet, another part of the city, where M. L. Sornborger served for some time as pastor. The church has called Gilbert E. Ireland to be its pastor. He began his work in August. Work was also done in the Fifth Church, under the leadership of W. F. Hamann as pastor. A part of their indebtedness has been paid. The church has selected a new location. A special fund was received by the American Christian Missionary Society of $200, for the Second Church in St. Louis. This money was sent as directed to that church, and has aided them very materially in their work. The St. Louis Board, through its secretary, Barclay Meador, writes that the St. Louis Society appreciates very much the help of the American Christian Missionary Society, and that they are planning for a forward movement along evangelistic lines, all over the city of St. Louis.

J. W. GANT.

J. W. Gant writes: "Our territory embraces thirty-three counties in the western part of Kentucky. It has a population of 600,000, of whom more than 100,000 are negroes. While in this territory we have a membership of about 25,000, yet in some sections we have practically no representative at all. In eight county-seats and in about as many counties, we are practically unknown as a religious people. There are many people in southwestern Kentucky who have not heard one of our ministers preach a single sermon. While we have been doing much work, there is more to be done, and to do it we must have more money. We appeal to the preachers for their help. They must come to the front now and talk missions with more zeal and more earnestness. We should throw our hearts into this work as we have never done before. We should place less emphasis upon the method and more upon the work. Let us 'be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as we know that our labor is not in vain in the Lord.'"

J. P. LICHTENBERGER.

J. P. Lichtenberger writes: "You will no doubt rejoice with us in the success of our year's work, that the New York Missionary Society is out of debt and your last check left over for the beginning of the new year's work. We rejoice in the victory. The convention has requested me to plead the cause of New York missions before your Society and the C. W. B. M. for continued appropriations. I have never been so thrilled with the great opportunities in New York State. The field is the greatest in the United States. We feel sure that if all the facts were known and considered in their comparative relations to other fields, we ought to be receiving more money from the Society than we are now receiving."

PORTO RICO.

J. A. Erwin, who practiced law in New Mexico before he became a minister and our missionary to Porto Rico, was appointed District Judge by the Governor of Porto Rico, with headquarters at Mayaguez. This rendered his resignation necessary. Your Board counts itself fortunate in securing W. M. Taylor and wife, lately of Chattanooga, Tenn., as successor to Bro. and Sister Erwin.

Porto Rico ought to be a rich port indeed for missionary work; careful sowing will be followed by reaping. We have three mission stations: San Juan, Port Du Tierre and Bayamon.

Could we realize the blessings we have sent to the people of Porto Rico in sending them the gospel, we would gladly double our offering to help a people so needy, so receptive and so grateful. We should have a church at Mayaguez, where J. A. Erwin holds court; at Playa, Aquadillo and Ponce.

W. M. TAYLOR.

MRS. W. M. TAYLOR.

The Sunday-school of the Presbyterian church at Scranton, Pa., supports a missionary in Porto Rico. Dr. Grace Atkins is supported as a medical missionary in Porto Rico by the Christian Endeavor Societies of the Presbyterian Church.

One of the Presbyterian churches in Iowa supports a special missionary in Porto Rico.

We must enlarge our work and press forward to the possession of this land for Christ.

GERMAN WORK.

The German mission field extends over twenty-one States of the Union. Our cities are large centers of German population and German influence.

GERMAN-SPEAKING PEOPLE IN OUR CITIES.

New York.	1,200,000	Cincinnati.	180,000
Chicago.	840,000	Cleveland.	156,000
Philadelphia.	300,000	Buffalo.	162,000
St. Louis.	240,000	Detroit.	139,000
Baltimore.	196,000	Pittsburgh.	102,000

One-third of the population of our cities can not be reached by English preachers; the gospel must be preached in the German tongue ere we can hope to evangelize our large cities.

There are 22,889 German-speaking Baptists in the United States. They have 249 churches where the services are in the German tongue. The Baptists maintain 84 missionaries among the German people of America. These missionaries baptized 401 persons during the year We ought to do a work equally as large. A German brother, pleading for us to do this work, writes: "O Church of Christ, wilt thou not preach the New Testament to the stranger that dwelleth with you? Wilt thou not heed and more fully obey the Lord's command, 'Go ye therefore and teach all nations, beginning at Jerusalem'?"

R. H. Timme's Work.—The General Board and the Ohio State Board of Missions united in supporting R. H. Timme in doing mission work among the German people of Cleveland. He reports as follows:

This report includes the first ten months of my work as general evangelist to the Germans, under the direction of the A. C. M. S.

We have now a membership of 98, or 23 additions during the year. We have two Sunday-schools, with an enrollment of 700; one sewing-school, with an enrollment of 65; two C. E. Societies, with a membership of 60; one Woman's Missionary Society, membership, 20. We raised during the year for the church building, $2,500; household, $450; missionary collections, $170; Sunday-schools, $225; C. E. Societies, $15; Children's work (Children's Home in His Name), $1,650; a total of $4,995. We have one church building, and one in course of building; both worth about $7,500. We have a Children's Home in His Name, which will be paid for in time by enthusiastic friends of the German work, worth, with added improvements, $10,000. This home, which was dedicated July 2, has now 28 homeless and destitute children, and new ones are added nearly every week as the result of our work among the Germans. The work being done here is orphanage, nursery, kindergarten, and all children go to our Sunday-school and church. Mrs. Timme and assistants are doing the practical work. We have two missionary ladies—one for the East Side and one for the West Side. One of these is paid by the church, with $100 assistance of the Ohio C. M. S., and one is paid out of my salary. These are experienced sisters and have done much work for many years. They visit the mothers and the children continually and do excellent work which will tell in future.

I have a week-day Bible-class for young people, and we are just commencing a class for systematic Bible study (with other studies connected.) for such who intend to enter the German missionary work.

With two prayer-meetings (one cottage and one regular) a week, my classes, teachers' meetings, sewing-school, missionary meetings, etc., I have nearly every day some meeting, and Sunday 6, sometimes 7.

I issue two monthly papers (1,200 copies), one German and one English-German.

I revised and issued also a German tract, "Drops of Truth," setting forth our position; another one is in course of writing.

R. H. TIMME.

We do not count our visits and speeches and efforts, but simply try to do every day as the Lord provides strength. He has helped us in his glorious work, and I am certain he will help us to go on. We are sure of greater results in the future. More workers, more means, more strength, is our prayer.

Any hardships? Any hindrances? Any failures and disappointments? The Lord knows them all—there are many. Every victory lies on the other side of the battle-ground, and every gain costs some investment. We hoped for greater results—visible results.

The second church will be organized as soon as the new building is completed, and we hope to be able soon to take up a third field in another part of the city.

We ask all the brethren to pray for us that this pioneer work among the Germans will lead to greater victories and may spread over the whole world.

R. H. TIMME, Missionary.

FOREIGN MISSIONS AT HOME.

We have here, in the foreign population, a mission field to which the love of Christ constrains us, to which patriotism impels us and to which the law of self-preservation compels us. It is from the congested mass of foreigners in our cities that will come the greatest danger to our liberties and our institutions, both church and State.

The gospel gives liberty and develops individuality, but its liberty is not license, nor is it anarchy. It inculcates reverence for law, secures the holy day as a boon to labor and the right of man, and through this gospel Christ becomes the statesman that can successfully solve the great problems that may be before this country.

These people need help. We have the help of the gospel.

The mighty immigration of people, which during the last fifty years has brought to America twenty millions of persons, gathered from all nations under heaven, still continues. It is a movement without a parallel in human history and is changing the economical, political, financial and religious aspect of the world. Under this vast tide of immigrants our republican institutions are subjected to an enormous strain, while our social and religious life is in danger of being slowly and sadly corrupted.

Had it not been for the virility of our Western life, for the aggressiveness of our American Protestantism and the stability of our institutions, we should have been as hopelessly overrun as was the Roman Empire by the hordes that poured in upon it from the North, centuries ago. We have not yet awakened to the meaning of this foreign mission field at our very doors. We do not realize that it brings to us a privilege, an opportunity and an obligation. God is bringing us into vital relationship through our contact with foreign immigrants on our shores and within our own borders. It seems as if the Lord, wearying of our failure to go to distant shores, has brought the strangers to our gates to challenge our service in their behalf.

The following table shows the number of people in America from foreign lands:

British Empire.	3,122,911	France	340,000
Germany.	2,785,894	Russia.	182,649
Scandinavia	1,040,000	China.	110,000
French Canadians. . . .	1,218,000	Japan.	38,000
Italy.	1,000,000	Other countries	1,567,455
Bohemia, Poland.	634,000
Mexico.	400,000	Total	12,418,909

MISSIONARY PROTRACTED MEETINGS.

Your Board believes that the coming winter is going to see a wave of evangelism sweep over our churches such as was never known before. Numbers of letters have come to the office, asking for the names and addresses of evangelists and asking that some good evangelists be recommended. Were our leading evangelists each multiplied into ten men, they could not meet the calls that are made upon them for service this winter. Some of them have engagements taking all their time for two or three years to come.

Your Board would earnestly plead for missionary protracted meetings to be held by our ministers.

The new century should witness a great revival of religious life among the American people, and, believing that we should be workers together with God in the saving of souls, the Board suggests that a movement be inaugurated in this Convention pledging a thousand of our churches and preachers to hold a missionary protracted meeting during the year of at least ten days' duration, either under the auspices of the General or State or District Board of Missions. A missionary protracted meeting is one held at some weak point away from one's church, the minister consenting to receive whatever compensation the brethren at such point may be able to give.

We hope this movement may receive the hearty support of the Convention, and that much good may come in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Our churches should lend and send their pastors to this great work. There is veritable mission ground in adjoining neighborhoods—delay now means forever, and a refusal will dwarf ourselves for all time to come. We need more of the itinerant spirit of our fathers and of the Methodist Church; they have taken new point after new point and held them by making a preaching-place of some needy neighborhood, and holding on until it was developed.

Organized work will never do a tithe of what should be done in winning small neighborhoods to our Lord and his Christ; this personal labor that stops not to be sent, but goes; that halts not because no money is offered; that goes because the love of Christ constrains the going—that is the work that is abundantly blessed by God and honored by good men. God help us to move out of our rocking-chairs.

OTHER WORKERS.

All the work should not be done by the ministers alone. We need consecrated men who can preach the gospel at their own charges: professional men and mechanics, farmers and teachers. Every one who has heard the glad cry, should say, "Come." By the Word spoken and the Word printed in tract, paper or book, we should aggressively but not offensively plead the good word.

Let the trumpet call of this great Convention give forth no uncertain sound. Let it be a call of war, not to wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers (Eph. vi. 12, 13): let it be a call to all the churches of God to put on their armor, to win victories.

REACHING SELF-SUPPORT.

Your Board increasingly realizes the need of pressing upon all churches receiving missionary money the duty of sacrificing much to reach self-support.

It is easy to help toward helplessness—it is hard for the mission to take on the additional burden of releasing the Mission Board and carrying on the work alone.

Mission churches come easily to think of the missionary appropriations as a right, and resenting its proposed withdrawal is not an unheard-of thing.

One missionary pastor wrote: "I have worked hard and built up this church, and now the Home Mission Board proposes to punish me for my hard work on the withdrawal of the missionary appropriation." What a conception of the work of the Board of Missions!

In order to train our missions toward self-support, the Board has planned all appropriations to mission points on the descending scale by the insertion of the following clause in the contract with every mission assisted by the Society:

"This contract is on the descending scale—it is understood that unless the church at ..... suffers unusual loss from death, removal or division, that the amount appropriated will be reduced each year until the church becomes self-supporting."

The Acting Board, at its meeting June 20, 1901, passed the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That the secretary be instructed to call attention of all the churches receiving appropriations from the Board to the fourth item of the contract; that the appropriation was put on the descending scale, and to say to such mission churches that the Board must insist on some reduction being made in the amount appropriated to each mission, unless special reasons exist for continuing the appropriations at the old amount."

It is the purpose of the Acting Board to help the mission churches help themselves, by a prompt, cheerful compliance with the above article of contract.

This does not apply to our appropriations to State Boards of Missions, nor to City Boards for the evangelization of our cities, but it does apply to all individual congregations receiving aid from our treasury.

We print on our Roll of Honor the churches that will assume self-support.

WHAT SHALL WE DO?

Your Acting Board appeals for a greater emphasis to be placed upon the work of Home Missions.

There is a condition of things just now in our country that justifies a strong, earnest, emphatic plea for Home Missions to the front. This is far from asking for less emphasis upon any other work of the brotherhood. Our Home Mission work has been allowed to lag behind in our benevolent enterprises; the churches began to think that was the way it ought to be and think far too little of our Home Mission work.

But the pathetic appeals of our own brethren scattered far and wide over the Northwest, the West and Southwest; the magnificent field of the East, with 20,000,000 people and only a few Churches of Christ; the Foreign-Home field, right at home—among the foreign populations; the great opportunity of the cities there—all these call ir trumpet tones for Home Missions to the Front. Add to this the fact that America is our base of supplies; that as we make our cause strong at home, we will make it strong abroad, and if we neglect the Home field, it will make feeble our outgoing to other lands. Add to this the ripeness of the Home field, where every $5 put into the evangelistic fund will win a soul to Christ; add to this the call of patriotism, that if we would save our land from anarchy and crime, we must save it to righteousness, and then add the heart's desire of our Lord and Saviour that America be saved for the sake of the souls of men, that he may see the travail of his soul and be satisfied —all these are angel messengers pleading, urging that we give the work of Home Missions no secondary place. America is the prize.

To-day seventy-five millions of freemen, rejoicing in their civil and religious liberty, are giving their energy and their skill and their enterprise to the promotion of her prosperity. Before the close of the first half of the present century, her statisticians tell us, not less than one hundred and fifty millions will reside within her borders And when the coming generation shall crowd through the opening gates of the next century, there will be three hundred millions of them to rejoice in what has been achieved and in the grander destiny that opens before them. In the face of facts like these, it is impossible for us to resist the profound conviction that here is to be found the grandest mission field of the globe. From these people must go out long lines of moral and intellectual influence that shall extend themselves to the very ends of the earth. Not many decades will pass until this people shall control the commerce of the world. All that commerce will have interwoven in its very fiber the moral and religious influences that pervade our land. Who does not know that English opium is the most powerful foe to the progress of Christian missions in China? Who does not know that New England rum is debasing the swarthy tribes of Africa, until they are almost below the reach of the gospel power to save? If un-Christian, what will America be but a vampire preying upon our humanity? If the future of this land shall be but a repetition of the history of the Spanish rule; if its controlling minds shall present the greed and crimes of Cortez and Pizarro; if the "accursed thirst for gold," that is the dominant passion of our people when uncontrolled by the gospel, shall give vent to its insatiable thirst in every land to which it may find access—what will it be to our fallen race but the most awful curse that ever smote our sinful world? But if this land of ours, permeated by Christian influences, shall send forth to the world's re-motest bounds commodities that shall be cleansed from all that is impure and unholy, send forth nothing but that which ministers to the uplifting of the people, and to the comfort of the nations; if these mighty engines that plow the great deep shall bear along with the material things the gospel's purity, and the gospel's power to sanctify and save, what will it be but the ushering in of the day when earth's dark history shall cease, when the sighing of the nations shall be ended, and the year of God's redeemed shall have come? This would be life from the dead. We are standing to-day at the crisis of all the ages, and when we plead for the gospel for our own land, for those that live in the secluded valleys of our mountains, for those that build their frontier cabins on the borders of our wide prairies, for those that crowd the factories and workshops of our great cities, for the boys that play along our streets, and for the girls that look out of our windows—when we ask for that which shall cleanse from their pollution the slums of our cities, that which shall drive ignorance and vice from all our homes, and which shall lift this land of ours in its entirety into the light and glory and blessing of the gospel of Jesus Christ, what do we ask for but that which must be the highest factor in the world's deliverance from the bondage of its guilt and the enthronement of Christ over the nations? Such are conditions that environ us to-day. Such is the responsible position, so solemn and awful in its grandeur, held by our country and the churches of our living God, in this land of our birth. Our hearts, like that of Eli of old, tremble under these solemn thoughts, and our souls are awed by the majesty of these grand events about us. Like the great apostle of the Gentiles, we exclaim, "Who is sufficient for these things?" Surely this is not a time to be afraid lest we spend too much money in trying to make our own land what it ought to be for God and for the world.

The Board makes another earnest appeal to the Convention. It must have a larger income to meet the demand of this work. Without specifying here the needs of her particular fields, we are profoundly impressed with the idea that this coming year the Board should have not less than $200,000, or else leave undone work whose pressing and imperious demands should not be refused, and will not be if we discharge our full duty to our country and our Master's cause. In our wide and growing field there is ever enlarging need and opportunity. Events succeed each other with hastening footsteps, and enterprise, and machinery, and productive industries, and capital, and discovery, and invention are crowding into our territory as they never have into any country in any age of the world. It is the day of opportunity. How shall we meet it?

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Your Board would respectfully recommend:—

1. That Forefathers' Day be assigned to the Board of Ministerial Relief and its proceeds be devoted to the assistance of our needy ministers and those dependent upon them.

2. That Article VIII. of the Constitution be so amended as to substitute Indianapolis for Louisville, that the work of Negro Evangelization and Education be put under the direction and supervision of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions.

3. Inasmuch as 1909 is the Centennial of the publication of the "Declaration and Address" of Thomas Campbell, and from that is dated the beginning of our movement as a plea for Christian union, we recommend that a committee be appointed by this Convention to report a year hence as to a plan for suitably commemorating this event in 1909.

The Acting Board would renew its expressions of gratitude to our increasing number of helpers in this work; to our church papers for large space in their columns; to our ministers who hold the success or failure of this work each in his congregation in the hollow of his hands; to the individual givers. All these marks of increasing interest in the work of Home Missions are gratifying to us and we are grateful.

We believe God has entrusted us with a dispensation of the gospel for this age and this land. Our mission is twofold, to a divided church, pointing the way and pleading for the union of God's people, and to a sin-cursed world, pointing to Jesus, the one object of the soul's supreme faith, and pleading with all men everywhere to accept him as their personal Saviour and friend upon the simple terms of the New Testament faith. Let us be loyal to both missions.

The wonderful activity of other influences forbids indifference in us; we should know that God asks for soldiers who are fit for the hour.

We must learn how to suffer with Christ and go forth unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach as well as to enjoy the comforts of his love. If we are unwilling to suffer with him we shall not reign with him! we should be identified with him here if we want to be identified by him there.

With such a purpose let us enter upon the labors of another year, not seeking deliverance from any opportunity or responsibility that God may count us worthy to receive.

For the Acting Board of Managers:

S. M. Cooper, Chairman.

Benjamin Lyon Smith, Corresponding Secretary.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 1, 1901.

ADDENDA TO THE REPORT.

The Board would call attention to the very low expense account as indicated in the above report. The secretary has faithfully endeavored to follow the instructions of the Kansas City Convention and keep the expense account down to the minimum with efficient work.

The Board would call attention to the fact that we have had but one secretary during the past year. Bro. Smith has done a tremendous amount of work, and this in connection with the fact that Mrs. Smith was ill for several months in the year. We have been anxious lest his health would break down in consequence, but the Lord has graciously cared for him and preserved his health.

We feel that this acknowledgment is due our secretary for his careful conduct of the work, and for the cheerful meeting of the great responsibilities and the load of detail in carrying this work to its present measure of success.

Report received and referred to appropriate committees.

George W. Muckley, corresponding secretary, presented the report of the Board of Church Extension. [For copy of this report, address G. W. Muckley, Kansas City, Mo.]

Received and referred to Committee on Recommendations of the Board.

The report of the statistical secretary, G. A. Hoffmann, was as follows:

STATISTICAL REPORT.

Christian union, on the basis of New Testament teaching, is the strength of the Disciples. Men of ability and scholarship who have looked into the causes of the growth of the Churches of Christ are unerringly led to this conclusion. It is a delight to know that there is nothing in this basis which the great commentators of the Bible have not heartily endorsed as the teaching of the word of God. Every movement for Christian union outside of the Christian Church has had for its aim either an interdenominational union or a union on its denominational creed. The New Testament idea of the church and a union on this basis is free from both these objections. Had the scholarly men among the Disciples of Christ given an interpretation or meaning to the Scriptures different from the great commentators among the denominations, and made these differences a part of the basis of Christian union, it would have been as objectionable as that of other religious bodies. This, however, is not true. The basis of Christian union, as advocated by the Disciples of Christ, is endorsed as Scriptural by every great commentator on the word of God. This is the explanation of the growth and intelligence of the Disciples of Christ.

Our schools and colleges present a fruitful field for investigation and study. They have given us the "brawn and sinew" of our ministry. They are the spiritual fountains which fertilize and stimulate our pulpits. The table below indicates encouraging growth for the ten years compared. You will not fail to notice, however, that there is a loss of forty in the column of those studying for the Christian ministry. The splendid gains of these schools for ten years show their popularity and their need. Any body of people who appeal to the heart through the intellect must build up schools through which they can train men who shall be able to bring the light of the gospel of Christ to the understanding of men. For this reason we believe that every effort should be made to keep up the growth in the number of young men studying for the ministry with the other departments of our schools. It is utterly impossible to recruit the ranks of our ministry from any other source than through our own schools.

*Loss.

There are a few of the smaller colleges and schools from whom we have not heard. They have not sent in their reports. They are also omitted in the comparison above. There was no way to compare the volumes in the libraries, as no report has ever been published in our Year Book heretofore. The number of students in the line for 1891 studying for the ministry was taken from 1894, as there was no report for 1891 in this column.

The growth of church membership is a puzzle to many at the present time. The country has been prosperous for the last half decade. Ministers are better paid than formerly. Missionary contributions have doubled, and millions are being given to colleges for educational purposes, and yet the growth of church membership has ceased in some denominations and is very unsatisfactory in others. The churches who gain largely by emigration are growing in numbers, of course. Three-fourths of the emigrants coming to our shores are either Lutherans, Episcopalians or Catholics. These bodies continue to gain in membership in spite of their losses from various causes.

During the last decade quite an interest has grown up in the evangelization of our large cities among the Disciples. As a result of this interest and the work it accomplished, we bring the following report in the cities named:

TEN YEARS' GROWTH IN SOME LARGE CITIES.

	IN CHURCHES.		IN COMMUNICANTS.
	1890.	1900	1890.	1900.
Buffalo	1	4	300	1,107
Chicago	6	18	1,060	4,954
Cleveland	5	9	1,800	3,000
Des Moines	3	8	1,500	5,200
Kansas City	6	11	2,199	4,609
Los Angeles	2	5	600	1,600
Nashville	7	14	2,000	3,600
St. Louis	4	12	1,129	3,784
Washington	1	4	600	1,800
Totals	35	85	11,188	29,654

We hoped to have this part of the report more full, but failed to hear from other cities, which have made an equally good growth. This is a clear gain of 150 per cent. in the ten years. It can be duplicated in other cities and continued.

The growth of churches in the United States has been about the same as the last two years. On account of the lack of means by our Home Missionary Board to extend our work into new fields, our growth is not as large as it should be. This is on account of our losses in members from old churches going to new territory. And yet, comparatively, our growth is exceedingly good. The reports indicate the following gains:

	1900	1901	Gain
Number of churches	10,528	10,689	161
Communican's	1,149,082	1,179,541	30,459
Number of Bible-schools	7,829	8,002	173
Enrollment	745,635	774,450	28,815
Ministers	6,348	6,385	42

Our growth in the future will be limited by two things, the gain in our ministry and the proper care of our membership moving into new fields. The former demands a more liberal policy toward our schools and the latter larger contributions for Home Missions.

Receipts through the several channels of Church Benevolences, for the fiscal year ending September 30, are as follows:

		$5,401,000
Total from all sources		$6,332,872

This is a gain of $576,850.00 over last year, which is the largest gain ever made in any one year. The above amount is over $5.00 per member for all purposes.

On motion of W. T. Moore, the name of H. O. Breeden was put in nomination for president. With this change, the report was adopted.

C. B. Newnan, of Michigan, presented the report of Committee on Porto Rico, which was adopted as follows:

Report of Committee on Porto Rican Missions.

Your Committee on Porto Rico would respectfully report:

1. We heartily commend the efficient service of our Bro. and Sister Erwin in the opening up of our work in Porto Rico, and it is with deep regret that we release our claim on him and his excellent wife, as our missionaries in this chosen field. Yet we believe that before him still lie great possibilities for good, and for the establishment of the gospel of Christ in the midst of the traditions of Rome. We bid him Godspeed, and pray our Father that he may be as loyal to the Master on the bench as in the pulpit.

2. We congratulate our Board on the wisdom of their choice of Bro. W. M. Taylor and his consecrated wife as the successors of Bro. and Sister Erwin. We fully believe they will accomplish for us all that we can reasonably expect in this difficult field. We would hereby pledge them our confidence and hearty support as they go from among us. And we earnestly pray that our Father may guide them in all their ways, and add his blessings to all their efforts for God and Porto Rico.

3. We would earnestly recommend the enlargement of our work in this field as fast as the condition of our treasury will warrant. We would recommend, for the consideration of the Acting Board, the following places to be opened up at the earliest opportunity: Mayaguez, where Bro. Erwin holds court; Playa, Aquidillo, Ponce, and to use every effort possible to hasten the day when Porto Rico shall become a part of the kingdom of our Lord the Christ.

Believing that no country can be successfully evangelized except by the aid of consecrated souls gathered from the native land, we would further recommend that our missionaries be urged to educate and train native helpers as speedily as possible, who shall work in connection with our missionaries, and under the direction of our Home Board.

Respectfully submitted,

Committee.

George Darsie, of Kentucky, presented the report of the Committee on Boys' and Girls' Rally Day for America, which was adopted as follows:

Report of Committee on Boys' and Girls' Rally Day.

Your committee would report as follows:

The present Sunday-school is the future church, and no duty now confronting us is more pressing and imperative than the duty of vigorously training it for this high mission. If we would have a golden harvest of missionary zeal, enthusiasm and liberality, the seed must be early sown and carefully watered. If we would see the noblest type of American citizenship and of Christian patriotism, the process of formation must begin in childhood.

We have not yet awakened to the mighty bearing of Boys' and Girls' Rally Day for America upon the future of our people, nor have we even dreamed of the wondrous possibilities that are wrapped up in it. If all our world-wide missionary movements rest upon the churches of the United States, as we often say, and truly say, and if these churches look to the Sunday-schools as their best hope of future growth and power, then surely the work we now do therein, if rightly done, must beyond our utmost calculation "tell on ages and tell for God."

The campaign of education in the stupendous purpose of saving America, both for America's sake and the world's sake, should therefore be pressed in all our Sunday-schools with a vigor tenfold increased. There is no reason in the world why Boys' and Girls' Rally Day should not become one of the great institutions of our brotherhood, and stand side by side with Children's Day for Foreign Missions as a splendid monument of our enterprise and liberality. There is indeed every reason in the world why it should both be this and do this.

If the Foreign Society last June enlisted 3,216 schools and received $42,-851 for its work from this source, Boys' and Girls' Rally Day also should look confidently forward to the speedy dawning of the day of greater things for it.

To make the day what it ought to be, and what we believe it will be, we recommend:

1. That the date be left unchanged; viz.: the Sunday preceding our annual Thanksgiving Day.

2. That our Sunday-schools everywhere celebrate it as one of the great and high days of their school year, holding where they can, special services, and using, as far as possible, the concert exercise, entitled "Christ and Our Country," appointed by the American Christian Missionary Society, and furnished free by it in any quantity desired.

3. That all pastors and evangelists, church officials and members, Sunday-school superintendents and teachers, State and district secretaries, and the evangelists working under State and district boards; that all our church papers and periodicals everywhere and any other and every proper agency that can be enlisted to this end, all be urged to unite in an unceasing and aggressive effort to push Boys' and Girls' Rally Day to the front, and to make it the great power for good among us that it ought to be.

4. That in order to give singleness of object to the benevolence of our Sunday-schools, thereby strengthening the appeal made to them, and greatly increasing, as we believe and hope, their offerings, as well as to bring into closer union the American Christian Missionary Society and all our State societies, and to identify them as doing one and the same great common work for God and humanity, we recommend that the entire offering be sent to the American Christian Missionary Society, to be equally divided between its treasury and the treasuries of the societies in the various States from which the offerings come.

T. A. ABBOTT, I. J. CAHILL,
J. H. GARRISON, Committee.

The following letter of greeting was received:

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 15, 1901.

TO THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST IN NATIONAL CONVENTION:

Dear Brethren and Sisters—The Minnesota Baptist State Convention, convened in its forty-second annual session, sendeth Christian greetings to the Disciples of Christ gathered in Minneapolis. We praise God for all effective service rendered, in his spirit and for him, and commend you to his guidance and love. May we all, speaking the truth in love, grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ.

In behalf of and by order of the Convention, E. R. POPE,
Cor. Sec.

Voted, That the Chair appoint a committee of three to return the greetings of this Convention to the Minnesota Baptist State Convention. The Chair appointed that committee as follows: C. L. Loos, I. N. McCash, J. B. Briney.

The Committee on Time and Place of Next Convention reported as follows:

Report on Place of Next Convention.

Your Committee on Place of the Next National Annual Convention of the Disciples of Christ, beg leave to submit the following report:

Having duly considered the invitations submitted by Pittsburg and Omaha, we have unanimously decided to recommend Pittsburg as the place of the next meeting in October, 1902, believing it to be for the best interests of our missionary work as a people.

E. V. ZOLLARS,
HELEN E. MOSES,
H. W. ELLIOTT,
Committee.

Amended by substituting Omaha for Pittsburg. The report was adopted as amended.

Voted, That the address of I. J. Spencer, president of the American Christian Missionary Society, become, with his consent, the property of the Missionary Board; that it be published in pamphlet form and given wide circulation through the medium of the Churches of Christ in America.

A. L. Orcutt presented the report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, and also an address on "Primitive Christianity." [For copy of this report, address A. L. Orcutt, Cor. Sec., Tacoma Avenue, Indianapolis, Ind.]

The report was adopted.

Allan B. Philput presented the report of the Committee on Resolutions.

Report of Committee on Resolutions.

1. We are profoundly grateful to our heavenly Father for the success that has marked our missionary enterprises, both at home and abroad, during the year. We are especially glad to note a growing appreciation upon the part of our brotherhood of missions as the chief business of the church.

2. We recognize, and would place upon record, our appreciation of the faithful and efficient work of our secretaries during the year, and pledge to them our renewed and increased co-operation for the future.

3. Our thanks are due to the churches of Minneapolis and St. Paul, and their efficient committees, for the very ample and hospitable way in which our Convention has been provided for and entertained. Also to the Minneapolis Commercial Club for the free use of their commodious Exposition building, and to the newspapers for their generous and appreciative reports of the proceedings of the Convention. We wish also to thank the ministers of Minneapolis and St. Paul for the very cordial way in which they have opened their pulpits to our ministers. Our thanks are also due to the railroads and hotels for the reduced rates allowed our delegates.

4. WHEREAS, The liquor traffic is a menace to our civilization at home, and to the extension of Christ's kingdom abroad, therefore

Resolved, That we declare our unalterable opposition to it, and hold it to be our sacred duty as citizens and as members of Christ's church to use every lawful means in our power for its suppression.

5. WHEREAS, The nation has been so recently appalled by a great tragedy prompted by the spirit and teaching of anarchy,

Resolved, That it is the duty of our ministry to give such counsel to the people in their public instruction as shall emphasize loyalty to constituted authority, and obedience to law as things ordained of God, being guided in this matter always by the warrant of Holy Scripture and the dictates of sound discretion.

6. WHEREAS, The one hundredth anniversary of the Louisiana Purchase is to be celebrated by a mammoth Exposition, or World's Fair, to be held in the city of St. Louis from May to November, in the year 1903, in which is to be exhibited the world's progress in civilization; and,

WHEREAS, It will offer a notable and exceptional opportunity of bringing together in one great convention representatives of our restoration movement from all parts of the world where its principles have spread, thereby enabling us to call the attention of the world to our plea for Christian unity on the basis of simple New Testament Christianity;

Therefore be it resolved by this Convention, in view of these facts and the further consideration that more time than usual will be required in which to make the necessary preparation for such a Convention, that the city of St. Louis be and is hereby chosen as the place of our annual Convention for the year 1903, and that the officers of this Society be instructed to co-operate with a local committee, to be appointed by the churches of St. Louis, to prepare for such Convention, and that we seek to make it world-wide in its representation and influence.

Resolved, further, that a committee be appointed by this Convention to co-operate with a local committee appointed by the churches of St. Louis and the Missouri Christian Co-operation, in providing for such an exhibit of our religious movement at the aforesaid World's Fair as may seem to them wise and practicable, including a representation of our educational, missionary and benevolent work, and such literature as will set forth the history, progress and principles of the Reformation of the nineteenth century.

7. Resolved, That we sympathize with the Executive Committee in their desire to rotate the program from year to year, so as to give the Conventions the opportunity of hearing as large a number of our preaching brethren as possible, thereby adding variety and interest to the proceedings.

ALLAN B. PHILPUTT, T. A. ABBOTT,
MRS. A. M. ATKINSON, Committee.

Report adopted, except Section 6, which was made a special order of business for 11:55 Wednesday morning.

The following committee was appointed by the Chair to report at the next Convention on the celebration of the centennial of the publication of the "Declaration and Address": J. H. Garrison, Archibald McLean, Benjamin L. Smith, Mrs. Helen Moses, Judge C. P. Kane.

EVENING.

Song service led by J. Walter Wilson. Prayer by Simpson Ely, of Iowa.

Report on Christian Endeavor was presented by F. M. Tinder, of Kentucky.

Report of Committee on Christian Endeavor.

Your Committee on Christian Endeavor would beg leave to submit the following report:

It is with great pleasure that we recognize the continued growth and usefulness of Christian Endeavor among us, and would emphasize in every way its importance in all the churches.

We feel justified, by the growth in spiritual life as well as numbers, in urging all our preachers to give encouragement and personal help to Christian Endeavor, and that they make it their aim to organize societies whenever practicable. The special growth of Intermediate and Junior societies gives new life and purpose to the movement, and signifies something of its future and usefulness in the churches.

We wish most heartily to approve of the plan to establish family worship in every home of the church, which we fear is too much neglected.

1. We recommend that all preachers and leaders of Christian Endeavor adopt some plan of proportionate giving, that greater intelligence may be exercised in contributing to the support of the Lord's cause.

2. To the end that Endeavor societies may be kept in touch with all missionary plans and operations, we recommend that our missionary secretaries prepare from time to time such information as will be helpful, and send to the societies, either direct or through State superintendents.

3. We believe in the Bethany Reading Course, its power for good as an educational factor among our young people, and earnestly urge that more general use be made of the hand-books which have been prepared. It is the judgment of your committee that each society among us can add greatly to its efficiency as a society, and each Endeavorer can be of more service to Christ and the church, by following carefully the course of study laid out by those who have the Reading Course in charge. The value of this contribution to the literature of the church can not be well overestimated, and should receive patronage commensurate with its importance.

4. We wish to express our appreciation of the good and faithful work of our national superintendent, Jno. E. Pounds, and urge that he receive the hearty co-operation of the brotherhood to the end that this work among us may be rapidly pushed forward, and that the Disciples of Christ may soon occupy first place in the Christian Endeavor world.

F. M. TINDER,
CLAUDE E. HILL,
H. C. GROVES,
Committee.

Report adopted.

Report of Committee on Recommendations.

Report of Committee on Recommendations.

Your committee to whom was referred the annual report of the Acting Board of Managers, with its accompanying recommendations, and the reports of the Board of Church Extension and the statistical secretary, would respectfully submit the following, for the consideration of this Convention:

1. With grateful and glad hearts we acknowledge the divine blessing vouchsafed to our brotherhood during the past year, as indicated by the very encouraging reports made to this Convention. Our rapidly increasing membership proves that our divine plea for a united Church of Christ, in order to the conversion of the world, has not yet lost its potency; while our increasing gifts to the cause of Christ, through the various channels of co-operative effort, sem to indicate a deepening sense of our responsibility to God, as fellow laborers with him in the world's redemption. Especially do we rejoice in the generous increase of the offerings from our people for the evangelization of America, and the housing of our young and needy congregations, that their power for good may be vastly increased thereby. We deem it but proper that the thanks of this Convention be expressed to the faithful servants of God who have borne upon their hearts, through all the year, these sacred interests, and especially to B. L. Smith, the devoted corresponding secretary of this Society, and G. W. Muckley, the faithful corresponding secretary of the Board of Church Extension, to whom the credit for these gratifying results so largely belongs.

2. Believing that our churches need but to know of the measureless needs of our vast country, and the countless open doors of opportunity through which the Disciples of Christ are free to enter, to supply those needs, we believe that the field force should be so enlarged as that all parts of our country may be speedily visited, and every church, so far as possible, enlisted in this holy work. We therefore recommend that the Acting Board be authorized and requested to add general or district evangelists to the corps of its workers, as the funds at their command, and their judgment of the fields, may justify.

3. In view of the marked success of the mission work conducted among the Germans, in Cleveland, under the direction and by the support of our Society and the State Board of Ohio, we are confirmed in the desire, so long felt by our brethren who have co-operated in missions, to multiply our efforts to evangelize the foreign populations of our own country. We owe it to those who seek our shores from other lands, that they shall find here not only a larger material opportunity, a wider intellectual horizon, a nobler political freedom, but as well the purest type of Christianity that exists upon the earth to-day. We must give to these strangers entering our doors not alone the blessings that minister to their temporal comfort and prosperity, but above all the bread of life, that will nourish them unto life everlasting. We recommend that this wide field be entered as rapidly as suitable men and adequate means can be secured.

4. We approve of the recommendations offered in the report of the Board, and commend them for the adoption of the Convention, to-wit:

a. That Forefathers' Day be assigned to the Board of Ministerial Relief, and its proceeds be devoted to the assistance of our needy ministers and those dependent upon them.

b. That Article VIII. of the Constitution be so amended as to substitute Indianapolis for Louisville; that the work of Negro Evangelization and Education be put under the direction and supervision of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions.

c. Inasmuch as 1909 is the centennial of the publication of the "Declaration and Address" of Thomas Campbell, and from that is dated the beginning of our movement as a plea for Christian union, we recommend that a committee be appointed by this Convention to report a year hence as to a plan for suitably commemorating this event in 1909.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

W. F. RICHARDSON, J. B. BRINEY,
WALTER SCOTT PRIEST, JESSE C. CALDWELL,
Committee.

Report adopted.

F. D. Power, president of the American Christian Educational Society, made a statement of the present status of this new organization. The secretary's report was read by W. E. Garrison, of Missouri. Brief speeches on behalf of the Society were made by A. B. Philputt, o Indiana; A. McLean, of Ohio, and W. F. Richardson, of Missouri.

The following standing committee on Christian union was appointed: I. N. McCash, of Iowa; C. L. Loos, of Kentucky; Geo. H. Combs, of Missouri; Carey E. Morgan, of Virginia; Jabez Hall, of Indiana.

S. T. Martin, of Nebraska, offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

1. Resolved, That the National Conventions of the Disciples of Christ, assembled in the city of Minneapolis, Minn., representing a brotherhood of about one and a quarter millions of Christians, desire to place themselves on record as approving most heartily the anti-canteen law enacted by the last Congress, and further to enter their protest against the disreputable methods employed to discredit the law in the minds of the people, by failure to enforce at army posts, and by means of dishonest reports of its operations in the press of the country.

2. Resolved, That we call upon the President of the United States and the Secretary of War for a fair and vigorous enforcement of the anticanteen law.

3. Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be furnished the press of the Twin Cities, the Associated Press, and the President of the United States and the Secretary of War.

AFTERNOON.

The Convention met in sections and listened to addresses on benevolences, education and evangelization, according to the program as printed.

EVENING.

An inspiring consecration service was led by J. H. O. Smith, of Indiana.

MINUTES OF THE GENERAL BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., Oct. 12, 1901.

Pursuant to call, the General Board of the American Christian Missionary Society met in the parlors of the West Hotel, in the city of Minneapolis, Minn., at 2 P. M., Oct. 12, 1901.

In the absence of J. B. Corwine, chairman, O. A. Bartholomew, St. Louis, was elected to the chair; G. A. Hoffmann, secretary. B. B. Tyler, Colorado, led the meeting in prayer.

It was then moved and carried that Committees on Enrollment and Nominations be appointed. The Chair appointed F. G. Tyrrell Missouri; S. H. Bartlett, Ohio, and J. H. Fillmore, Ohio, a Committee on Enrollment, and N. S. Haynes, Illinois; B. F. Clay, Idaho, and A. McLean, Ohio, Committee on Nominations.

The Board then heard the report of the Acting Board as presented by Benj. L. Smith, corresponding secretary. Parts of the report were read and explained. The report with recommendations, was approved and referred to the Convention.

G. W. Muckley, secretary of the Board of Church Extension, presented the report of this work. Portions of this report were read, and motion made and carried to refer to the Convention.

A. L. Orcutt, Indianapolis, presented the report of Ministerial Relief, which was read and explained and referred to the Convention.

The report of the statistical secretary, G. A. Hoffmann, was presented and explained and referred to the Convention.

John E. Pounds read the report of the work and growth of Christian Endeavor. It was approved and referred to the Convention.

Fred Scannell, Atchison, Kan., made a statement and presented a new method of church insurance. It was moved and carried that the matter be referred to the Board of Church Extension for their consideration.

The Committee on Enrollment reported ninety-nine life directors, life members and annual members present. Report accepted.

The Committee on Nominations presented the names of W. J. Russell, chairman, and J. P. Lichtenberger, secretary, for the coming year. Report approved.

A. B. Philputt, Indiana, nominated Chas. B. Newnan, Michigan, as an additional member of the Board of Trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor. Nomination approved.

Motion made and seconded to allow J. T. Boone, Jacksonville, Fla., to present to the Convention the claims for aid of the Central Church in that city. The matter was referred to the Committee on Resolutions of the Convention.

Adjourned. O. A. BARTHOLOMEW, Pres.

G. A. HOFFMANN, Sec.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR REPORT.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPT. 30, 1901.

The year has been a rather quiet one in Christian Endeavor circles, but it has been the quietness of summer growth, when every day adds increase and strength of fiber. It would be hardly accurate to say that the societies have taken on new life, but rather that there are new manifestations of life which belong to maturity. Christian Endeavor has found its real place and is really filling it. It is doing more efficient work than ever before, fulfilling all reasonable expectations.

Christian Endeavor is less talked about than formerly, but more felt. Perhaps it talks about itself less, because it talks more of the needs of the church and the world. It is forgetting itself in its service. People are somewhat used to the style and fashioning of the plow, and are turning their eyes from it to the furrows of ground that lie turned in eloquent rows. The talk about the power and application of electricity has decreased as much as the number of people riding on the trolley-cars has increased, and if we hear less discussion about the plan and growth and method of Christian Endeavor than formerly, it is because the wisdom of the plan is accepted, the method successful and the growth assured. I am sure facts will justify the statement that the Christian Endeavor societies have done more and more efficient service for God and humanity in the last year than in any previous one. More persons have been converted by its agency, more missionary money given by its members, and a better conception of the real things in the spiritual life has obtained and been proclaimed than ever before. So, while there may be less to report than formerly, there is more cause for rejoicing and thanksgiving, for the best things about our religion are too large to be measured in baskets of earthly fashioning and so can not be numbered in bushels.

The Endeavor Society has become more an avenue of communication than formerly. Movements for better living and for the evangelization of the world can be brought to the attention and laid upon the hearts of all the people quickly. A campaign for larger and more systematic giving, the distribution of missionary literature and information, an effort to awaken the people to the need of more devotion in the home, can be made to touch nearly every young Christian in the land by means of the Endeavor organization. The Disciples of Christ will sadly fail of their opportunity if they do not use this in some large way.

Your superintendent has tried to use the societies as a means of communication with the churches concerning the enterprises of the brotherhood, during this last year, more than ever before. He has sent letters to the societies concerning missionary and other work, both directly and through the State superintendents. About seven thousand letters have been sent out from his office, and certainly with good results. There has been an increase in the missionary offerings, and that increase will certainly be permanent. It will probably be wise to increase such correspondence in the future.

In this connection the Bethany C. E. Reading Courses must also be mentioned. Under the direction of the beloved J. Z. Tyler, probably the most eminent in Endeavor work of any man among the Disciples of Christ, this educational enterprise has grown from nothing to its presentgoodly proportions. Its great usefulness demands that it be more used. It has created a literature of much real merit, and of the very kind our young people must need. It may well be called the Bethany Course, for it certainly is a great aid in carrying out the work of the sage who lived and wrought in the historic village of that name. Your superintendent has no direct connection with this work, except that of the real sympathy which all our people should feel, J. Z. Tyler having the entire direction. He should have the support and help of all.

Your superintendent makes the following recommendations:

1. That the States change superintendents less frequently. The changes that are made bring almost endless confusion to the work Sometimes it is necessary to change, but there should exist almost a necessity before the change is made.

II. That it be recommended to the State superintendents that they make it a distinct part of their work to assist in organizing circles for the Bethany C. E. Reading Course work, and helping that work in all reasonable ways.

III. That an earnest effort be made by all pastors and Endeavor leaders to secure some system of regular and proportionate giving to the Lord's work. It is left to the societies to choose the plan, whether it shall be by joining the "Tenth Legion" or otherwise. But some system should be adopted by every society.

IV. That special interest be taken in the movement for more devotional life in the home. In many, perhaps most of our homes, the family altar is neglected or forgotten. To build again these altars will be to bless the church and the manhood of all the future. There should be a great awakening to the need of more prayer and study of the Bible in the homes. This work should have second place to none in Endeavor circles for the coming year.

The table of statistics I have left until the last, because numbers are not the most important element of Endeavor work. The year began with 5,001 societies, and closed with 5,277, a gain of 276—the gain last year being only ten. This is a fine record. Iowa gained the largest number of new societies, and also the largest per cent. Below is a table giving the gain or loss of each State.

No report is made of money received, as the treasurers of the Missionary Boards can give much more accurate statistics than your superintendent.

This report is submitted in the confident belief that the Endeavor work among the Disciples of Christ has grown in every essential particular work during the last year. Respectfully,
